Defective insulation was believed to have caused the fire.

They have purchased the ground along the Federal Highway No. 27 in the Nussbaum addition and along Center street. They will have a building suitable for their work the first week in March. The young men propose to start a poultry farm in connection with the hatchery and raise Barred Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds and White Leghorns. They will cater to custom hatching and try to help the farmers raise better poultry and consequently an increase in egg production.

The first hatch is to come off the first week in April and will be composed of America's most popular strains. Barred Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds and White Leghorns.

FIVE VESSELS ADRIFT AT SEA

Fierce Northeaster Sweeps Atlantic Coast; 46 Men On Floundering Ships

Norfolk, Va., Mar. 3.—(United Press) Two barges, two light ships and the steamer City of St. Louis with 46 men are adrift near the Hatteras Shoals as the result of the fierce northeaster which swept the Atlantic coast yesterday, according to reports reaching here today.

The British steamer King David last night went aground off Cape Henry and sent out a call for help, reporting that she was sinking. Later she was floated under her own power.

The Fimmore, bound for Baltimore from Daquiri, reported by radio that she was ashore and asked for assistance, but her position was not given and has not been reported.

Other vessels sending distress signals were the Sulaniero, out of San Pedro for Newark, N. J., and the Maracaibo, for New York from Curaco. The Maracaibo reported she was not under control, but her position was not learned.

The Sulaniero reported her lights were out. At noon today the coast guard headquarters had no reports as to the safety of the vessels.

Hotel Swept Into Sea

ALIMONY MARTYR

Man Serving Life Term Rather Than Pay Alimony

Willows, Cal., Mar. 3.—(United Press)—Samuel W. Reid, California's "alimony martyr" who is serving a life sentence in jail rather than pay alimony to his divorced wife, has started the third year of his confinement.

Reid attracted nationwide attention in 1925, when he declared he would go to jail before he would obey the injunction of Superior Judge C. F. Purkitt of Glenn county, to pay alimony toward the support of his former wife who, he insists, has now remarried her first husband.

"It isn't fair," he declared. "If he wants her he can support her. I'll not pay a cent toward her support if I lie in jail until I die."

Reid let his hair and beard grow long as a mark of resentment at the court's action. After 16 months of imprisonment he was taken from the jail for a sanity test. A commission of alienists pronounced him perfectly sane. At that time he permitted his hair to be cut, and his beard shaved.

After the examination, Judge Purkitt again ordered him to jail, and Reid began to let his hair and beard grow again.

"I am a victim of injustice and personal spite," said Reid. "I am perfectly willing to pay for the support of our 3-year-old child, if she is
