ANNIVERSARY OF CHURCH OBSERVED

It was organized, spoke during the morning service, which began at 10 o'clock. A sextet from the Emanuel Lutheran church sang several selections during the morning service, also.

Church Is Too Small
During the afternoon service, the church was far too small to accommodate the crowd that gathered. The Rev. H. Wehmeyer, of Bridgeport, Conn., who was the first resident pastor of the local congregation, was the speaker at the afternoon service. Special music was furnished by the St. Peter's church choir, of the Pulling settlement.

In the evening, the Rev. A. W. Hinz, of Cleveland, Ohio, another former pastor of the Decatur church, was the speaker. The St. Peter's choir sang again and Otto Lankenau, son of the Rev. Frank Lankenau, of Napoleon, Ohio, sang a few selections.

The Rev. Walter Klaus, of Fort Wayne, son of the Rev. J. H. Klaus, attended the services. Several former members of the congregation were present from Fort Wayne and other cities and towns in Indiana and Ohio. Several persons from Cleveland, Ohio, were here.

A lunch was served in the church's school building Sunday evening. A large crowd enjoyed the meal.

The sermons delivered during the day were very inspiring and interesting. Many incidents in the progress of the church during the last twenty-five years were discussed during the day. The present pastor of the church, the Rev. Paul W. Schultz, and the members of his congregation are highly elated over the success of the anniversary observance.

Decatur Truck Hits Wagon Near Portland

A truck belonging to the Mutschler Packing company, of Decatur, and driven by M. Johnson, collided with a hay wagon, driven by Lawrence Sipe, a Jay county farmer, on State road No. 27, north of Portland, last week. The truck was towing another machine to Decatur at the time of the accident. The wagon was badly damaged, but the Mutschler company agreed to pay for the cost of repairing the wagon. No one was injured in the accident.

SEVERAL AUTOS ARE DAMAGED IN WRECKS SUNDAY

and the car was damaged considerably.

Ossian Woman Injured

Mrs. Sarah McBride, 80, of Ossian, was severely injured when she was struck by an automobile driven by Paul Sterling, of Ossian, Saturday night. Her arm was fractured in three places, and it was necessary to amputate the arm in an effort to save her life. Mrs. McBride is still in a serious condition. She was crossing the street in front of her house when the accident occurred. Sterling was not held.

Berne Man Fined On Three Charges Today

Hugo Steiner was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $33.95, in Justice of the Peace court at Berne today, on charges filed by the Berne marshal, for provoke, exceeding the speed limit and reckless driving. After Steiner had paid his fine, Sheriff Earl Hollingsworth served a warrant on him filed by his wife, for stealing her automobile. The case, however, was settled out of court, when Mrs. Steiner agreed to withdraw the charges.

Catholic Picnic To Be Held On Next Sunday

The St. Mary's Catholic church picnic will be held next Sunday at Sunset Park. Members of the congregation and families and friends are invited to attend. Entertainment will be provided for the children, including contests and a treasure hunt. This is the second picnic to be given during the summer, the first one being so successful that requests were made to hold another one at this time.

Convicts Steal Alcohol; Three Drink It And Die

McAlister, Okla., Aug. 1.—(UP)—Further investigation was made today by Oklahoma State Penitentiary authorities into theft of Alcohol from the prison paint shop and subsequent death of three men who consumed it. Two other prisoners were in the hospital today in a serious condition as a result of drinking the alcohol.

Voglewede Funeral Held This Morning

Funeral services for Mrs. Anthony Voglewede were held this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church. The Rev. J. A. Seimetz, officiating. Burial was made in the St. Joseph Catholic cemetery. Pall bearers were John Baker, Julius Kohne, Frank Heiman, Joseph Heiman, Theodore Lengrich and August Dengrich. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The Rev. Joseph Hession conducted the services at the grave. Mrs. Voglewede's death occurred Thursday morning at the Adams County Memorial hospital, after a short illness.

Crops Look Good In Northern Part Of State

Amos Fairchild has returned to this city after a visit at South Bend with his son and daughter, Enoch and Dora Fairchild. Mr. Fairchild states that the crops look good around the northern part of the state. He stated that indications were that the wheat, corn and oats crops would be better than in recent years.

Former Geneva Man Sent Back To Reformatory

Sammy Dynes, formerly of Geneva, who has been serving time at the state reformatory at Pendleton, is back in prison again to complete his sentence, after having gained a parole last spring. Dynes is said to have issued a fraudulent check for $140. as part payment for an automobile. Dynes started his reformatory career several years ago when he and another lad stole gasoline by breaking a lock at a pump and stole clothing in an automobile at Portland. His downfall at that time began when he commenced buying automobiles.

Baumgartner Furniture Company Incorporates

The H. H. Baumgartner Manufacturing company, of Geneva, was incorporated Saturday, with a capital stock of $50,000. The incorporators are H. H. Baumgartner, F. E. Nide and W. S. Shoemaker, all of Geneva. The company is organized to manufacture furniture. The plant was moved from Linn Grove to Geneva a few months ago.

Congressman H. E. Rowbottom Accused of Signing Contract With Klan

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—(United Press)—Subject of much speculation since its existence became known in an indirect way, a purported contract between Congressman H. E. Rowbottom, of Evansville, and D. C. Stephenson, former Ku Klux Klan leader, was made public by the Indianapolis Times in a copyrighted article today. It was one of the paper's out of the "little black boxes," that were turned over to the Times.

Rowbottom had denied that he ever signed an agreement and pointed out the name appearing on it was "Harry Rowbottom" whereas his official signature on congressional letters appeared as H. E. Rowbottom.

It was Rowbottom's opinion the contract was forged.

The contract repudiated by Rowbottom read "that in consideration of your support I hereby agree to make absolutely no appointment unless and until you approve of the same."

Jackson Remains Quiet
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—(United Press)—No comment regarding the political investigation was forthcoming when he returned to his desk after an absence of a week at Mackinac Island, Mich., where he attended the conference of governors of which he is treasurer.

The governor received newspaper men, but all he had to say to them was, "I have nothing to say."

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—(United Press)—Reaching the first day of its extended session, the Marion county grand jury plunged today into examination of thousands of words of testimony contained in the transcripts of evidence heard by the two grand juries that previously investigated "Stephensonism" and political corruption in Indiana.

September 1 was before it as the goal for the conclusion of the inquiry—a goal fixed by Foreman William J. Mooney in a preliminary report to Criminal Judge James A. Collins, and repeated by Special Prosecutor Emsley W. Johnson.

THE PLOW AID

The new attachment that conditions the furrow slice as the plowing is being done. It is three blades at the end of the mold board that cut, turn and otherwise conditions the soil so it holds moisture, releases plant food early, eliminates airpockets, in fact its work more than equals a double discing which is the verdict of thousands of users and it does it the right way, at the right time and without extra attention or draft. I have the distribution of the Plow Aid in Adams Co., and want a few local agents, come in and see them, thousands to sell. Farmers don't miss using them in your next plowing, you will be glad. Get a circular explaining all.

Naomi Christen Is Visiting Her Parents

Miss Naomi Christen, of Kankakee, Illinois, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Christen north of the city. At the present time, Miss Christen is doing extension work at the University of Illinois, at Kankakee. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Christen and children, of Springfield, Illinois, are visiting with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Christen, also. Mrs. Christen will be here ten days before leaving for Pennsylvania, where she will visit her parents.

Gasoline Tax Becomes Effective In Illinois

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1.—(UP)—Constitutional or not, the gasoline tax enacted by the recent legislature and signed by governor Small became effective in Illinois today, and those who visited filling stations during the day paid two cents more for each gallon of gasoline.

Whether the law will remain on the books is a question. Next week attorneys for the Chicago Motor Club will argue before circuit court in Kane county that the state be enjoined from enforcement of the measure on the grounds that it is unconstitutional.

Police Without Clue In Death of Dr. J. C. Walton

Indianapolis, Aug. 1.—(UP)—Police are still without a clue today in the mysterious death of Dr. James C. Walton, local physician, who died Friday of wounds believed to have been inflicted by and assailant in a holdup.

The motive for the slaying is the problem puzzling authorities. Robbery is discounted as valuables were found on the doctor's person. The theory that the wounds were inflicted following an altercation with a motorist is weakened by the fact that the doctor was struck on the back of the head.

Police have narrowed the search for clues to a twenty-minute period during which the physician cannot be traced.
