Wabash County Man Killed By Mad Bull

Wabash, Ind., Sept. 22—(INS)—The name of Hartley Stutz, 26, young farmer of south of Wabash, has been added to the list of those who lost their lives when gored by angry bulls.

The young man lay in the pasture more than two hours, unable to attract attention. When he was found he was taken to Fort Wayne but attempts by physicians at the hospital there were unavailing to save his life. His spinal column was injured.

Autos Prove Boosters

Of Sturdier Roosters

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 22—(United Press)—The automobile has been responsible for the development of a sturdier and incidentally a smarter race of roosters and chickens, according to Richard C. Haldeman, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation. Haldeman claims that the large number of chickens killed on the road during the early days of the automobile age weeded out "mentally unfit roosters and hens."

He claims that instead of being blamed for the chickens which are still killed the motorists should be thanked for they are aiding the farmer in developing a better grade of fowls.

Miss Faye Greer, of Portland, and Mr. Clinton Moser, of Berne, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wahl here.

THRONG OF FIGHT FANS IN CHICAGO TO SEE BIG BOUT

the fight for the title and then to get back to homes and hotels.

Hopes For Sell-Out Fade

The usual wild last-day scramble for tickets at exorbitant prices was replaced by urgent efforts of high-powered salesmen to get rid of good seats at box office prices. Hopes for a sell-out and a $2,000,000 gate apparently had entirely faded, although by fight-time all the desirable places probably will be taken.

The status of the suburban seats in the $5 and $10 classes—seats so far from the ring that only binoculars would enable an occupant to see the fight in detail—was a deep mystery. It was possible there might be many vacant spaces in the regions 500 to 700 feet from the center of the field.

Final Details Being Handled

In Tex Rickard's offices a steady line of important figures straightened out last minute details, and at the field carpenters were driving the last nails and electricians completing the work of training powerful searchlights on the tiny square in which the championship will be settled.

Scores of telegraph instruments over which literally hundreds of thousands of words will be sent out to all parts of the continent and relayed to foreign countries, were in place but wire men worked at last-minute tests to make sure no hitch would occur.

Radio workmen, too, were on duty, preparing for broadcasting the story of the fight to millions who preferred to sit comfortably at home rather than join the bustle in the arena.

Crowd To Offer Show

But the radio listeners will miss the show. Good fight or poor, the fists of Jack and Gene cannot provide a spectacle to equal that which 150,000 rabid watchers will offer subconsciously.

There were some who looked with misgivings on the thousands of dimly chairs stretching back from the ring along level ground to the edges of

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

In the Matter of North 8th Street

Sidewalk and Curb Improvement

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council in and for the City of Decatur, Indiana, did on the 20th day of September, 1927, pass and adopt a preliminary resolution to make the following described improvement on North 8th Street in said City, to wit:
Commencing at the north side of the Monroe street brick improvement, thence running north over and along 8th Street, to the South side of Nuttman Avenue Concrete Pavement and there to terminate.

INTENTION: It is the intention of these plans and specifications to provide an improvement consisting of a two (2) foot addition to each side of the 22 ft concrete sidewalk adjacent to the curbing on the west side of the improvement only, as per plans and specifications, which said plans and specifications are on file in the office of the City Clerk and subject to the inspection of all parties interested.

Further notice is also given that the Common Council will on the 4th day of October 1927 at 7 o'clock P. M. at their Council Room in said City, hear and receive any and all objections and remonstrances which may be made and filed against said improvements and will then determine whether or not the benefits accruing to the property liable to be assessed therefore will be equal to the estimated costs thereof.

Witness my hand and official Seal this 22 day of September, 1927.
