Alfonso De La Huerta Slain In Mexico; Rebel Lead- er Is Executed

FIVE ARMIES ARE MARCHING ON PEKING

(By International News Service)

In the face of the general clamor for disarmament and world peace, there were discordant and warlike features in the world's news today.

Civil war again has flared up in China, and five armies are marching upon Peking.

A new revolution has developed in Mexico, although the Calles government claims it has the situation entirely in hand.

The assassination of General Kovacevich, one of the leading strategists of the Serbian army, has presented a serious aspect. The Serbian press charges that Bulgaria is supporting irregulars in their raids on Serbian territory.

Turkey has sent a belligerent note to Persia, threatening war because of the seizure of Turkish citizens by Persian irregulars on the Turco-Persian frontier.

Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, Oct. 7.—(UP)—Alfonso De La Huerta, brother of the former provisional president of Mexico, was slain in a battle with federal troops 30 miles south of here last night.

The body was brought here today by a victorious federal battalion and placed on exhibition in the public square.

De La Huerta, it was reported, was leading an army of Yaqui Indians through Sonora when they encountered a superior force of federals.

Rebel Is Executed

Mexico City, Oct. 7.—(UP)—Protesting his innocence and declaring that he acted upon superior orders when he marched out of Mexico City with the troops under his command, General Alfred Quijano went to his execution bravely.

General Quijano, who was charged with having been a leader in the present rebellion, faced the firing squad without fear, and twice gave instructions that the squad should come nearer.

20 Tons Of Sour Kraut Consumed At Big Feast

Springfield, Minn., Becomes Leader In Cabbage Consumption; 10,000 Persons Attend Annual Kraut Festival; 20,000 Weiners, 300 Gallons Of Coffee, 12,000 Sandwiches And 10,000 Doughnuts Also Disposed Of At Feast.

Springfield, Minn., Oct. 7.—(UP)—Ten thousand persons in and near Springfield today were willing to declare today a fast day, and the fourth annual kraut festival a success.

The ten thousand gathered around tables yesterday, and when the big event of the evening—crowning of the king of kraut consumers—took place, twenty tons of sauer kraut, 20,000 weiners, 300 gallons of coffee, 12,000 sandwiches of various description and 10,000 doughnuts, had disappeared.

Puts Town On Map

The diners met at the festival started twenty-five years ago, but discontinued a short time later, by George Wursin. Wursin was a member of the city council and declared Springfield should be famous for something.

He had the idea of gathering the citizens together once a year for a great feast of cabbage, to make Springfield first in cabbage consumption. That he succeeded was demonstrated here last night.

Starting early yesterday afternoon, the crowd began the assault on the great kegs of kraut. The 2,000 residents of Springfield were augmented by visitors from miles around.

Varying their diet with a few weiners, washed down with cups of steaming coffee, the crowd soon made an inroad on the kraut. But more was brought out and at last twenty tons had been disposed of.

Then the gorged inhabitants and visitors lolled around a stand where a half dozen men sat before several kegs of sauer kraut, wielding forks in an effort to win the supreme honor of Springfield—King of Kraut Consumers.

DUVALL TO END RULE IN CAPITAL CITY TOMORROW

Mayor To Automatically Relinquish Office When He Is Sentenced

WIFE TO ASSUME MAYOR'S DUTIES

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—(INS)—John L. Duvall will cease to be mayor of Indianapolis by noon tomorrow as the result of his conviction on charges of political corruption, Emsley W. Johnson, special assistant prosecutor of Marion county announced today. Duvall, who was convicted by a jury in criminal court on the night of September 22, is to appear before Special Judge Cassius C. Shirley for sentence tomorrow. The jury fixed his punishment at 30 days in the county jail, $1,000 fine and disqualified him from holding office for four years from the date of his offense.

Under the law it was believed that the mayor's toga tomorrow will fall upon the shoulders of Mrs. Duvall, the mayor's wife, whom Duvall appointed city controller ten days ago.

Prosecutor Interprets Law

Prosecutor Johnson contended that the pronouncement of sentence by special Judge Shirley on Duvall tomorrow automatically will remove the mayor from office inasmuch as the jury which convicted the mayor specifically stipulated that should not be eligible for public office for four years in addition to sentencing him to jail and fining him.

"The law indicates plainly that the sentence in regard to holding public office will take effect with the pronouncement of sentence regardless of any appeal to the state supreme court," Johnson said. "Any act of Mayor Duvall after he receives sentence will be invalid."

The Marion county grand jury and the special prosecutors aiding Prosecutor William H. Remy, today began an investigation of alleged corruption among city councilmen as the result of the failure of the city council to impeach the mayor after two announcements that they would do so. The impeachment move died each time after a series of city hall shake-ups.

EVANGELIST TO HOLD SERVICES

Evangelical Church to Open Series Of Evangelistic Services Sunday

Beginning with Sunday evening, the Evangelical church in Decatur will hold a series of Evangelistic meetings. Sunday evening, the Rev. J. O. Mosler, the presiding elder of the Fort Wayne district, will preach and, in connection with this service, there will be the celebration of the Lord's Supper. There will be no Monday evening service because of the Community Training School. Tuesday evening, the Rev. A. Guilian, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, a native Italian and a former priest in Italy, now a missionary to the Italians in Milwaukee, will bring a thrilling message. A number of the membership of the church have heard the Rev. Mr. Guilian speak and testify to his wonderful messages. He will be here only for the one evening and should draw a crowded house.

Beginning with Wednesday evening, Mrs. Ida Tribbett, the woman evangelist who held a series of services in this church last winter, will speak. She will be here indefinitely, at least for ten days. The people who heard Mrs. Tribbett last winter rejoice that she is returning for a few days, and are eager to hear her at each of the services.

The public is cordially invited to attend any and all of these services. It is especially urged that the entire membership of the church plan to attend regularly these special meetings. At the close of the meetings last winter, Mrs. Tribbett received a unanimous vote of the congregation to return for another meeting, and it is in harmony with this desire of the congregation that she is coming at this time. During the late summer, Mrs. Tribbett conducted a meeting in Portland which resulted in great good. For over a month she has been resting at her home in Sturgis, Mich., and is beginning her winter's work with the meeting here. Her next meeting, following this one, will be in West Virginia.

The meetings will begin at 7:15 o'clock with the song service, the preaching service at 8 o'clock. On Sundays, the evening service will begin at 7 o'clock. In all probability there will be a Saturday evening service and some afternoon meetings, but these will be announced after Mrs. Tribbett arrives. The pastor, the Rev. R. W. Loose, is in charge of these meetings. A great gathering is being planned for a week from Sunday, which is to be the Bible School's annual Rally Day. A great goal both in numbers and finances is being set. The Sunday school board meets at the church at 7:30 o'clock, this evening to complete its plans for this Rally Day service. Every member of the board is urged to be present.

Batteries: (Pittsburgh) Meadows, Cvangros and Gooch; (New York) Pennock and Grabowski, Bengough.

Yankee Stadium, New York, Oct. 7.—(INS)—Babe Ruth hit a home run with two men on base and Herb Pennock pitched a three-hit game as the Yanks routed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-1, here this afternoon. It was New York's third straight victory and they now need only one game to capture the 1927 world series. It was a dramatic, if one-sided ball game. Most of the fireworks came in the seventh inning when the Yankees donked Lee Meadows out of the box and scored six runs. It was in this inning that Ruth slammed his big homer high into the right field bleachers. It was the first homer of the series.

Pittsburgh never had a chance. For one thing, Pennock was too good, so good in fact he did not allow a hit until the eighth inning when Traynor singled with one out. Barnhart then doubled and Traynor scored the only Pirate run.

Starting Lineup

SPECIAL SESSION OF JURY UNLIKELY

Grand Jury May Investigate Gilliom Affair At Its November Session

Probability of no further investigation of Attorney General Gilliom's admitted violation of the Wright "bone dry" law here last May before the regular session of the Adams county grand jury next month loomed today. Since the grand jury will be called for its regular session on the first Monday in November, local court officials are said to be adverse to calling a special session at this time.

Whether or not the grand jury will make an investigation of the admitted charge that Mr. Gilliom procured a pint of whiskey and brought it to the Adams County Memorial hospital here last May to be administered to his sister, Miss Emma Gilliom, of Berne, who had undergone an operation there, when it convenes next month, is problematical.

"There is a big diversity of opinion on the matter," Prosecutor John T. Kelly said this morning. "A lot of people think some action should be taken against Gilliom, while a lot of others think nothing should be done. Many persons say that Gilliom did nothing more than they would have done under the circumstances," Mr. Kelly said.
