Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Jones of Berne visited the Dr. E. G. Coverdale family last evening.

Shower for Bride Elect

One of the prettiest of fall parties was given, Thursday evening at the Mrs. William Murtaugh residence on Mercer avenue, with Misses Marie and Regina Murtaugh and Kate Christen acting as hostesses. The party was a miscellaneous shower complimentary to Miss Cecil Miller, whose marriage to Richard Ehinger will be an event of October eighteenth. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in fall flowers and bitter-sweet. In one corner of the room, a sparkling silver moon was suspended from the ceiling and seated in the moon with a bow and arrow poised for a dart, was a miniature cupid. Rain fell from the moon in a glittering shower upon a table beneath where a second cupid stood guard over a number of wrapped packages. Miss Miller was requested to open these packages and found that they contained many beautiful gifts. Five games of Bridge furnished diversion for the remainder of the evening and prizes for high score were awarded to Mrs. Fred Fullenkamp and Miss Helen Gass. These were in turn presented to the honored guest. At the close of the evening, a two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses. Those in attendance were: Mrs. Fred Fullenkamp, Mrs. Charles Starost, Mrs. Florence Bollinger, Mrs. Raymond Keller, Mrs. Clyde Butler, Mrs. Hubert Schmitt, Mrs. Dan Zeser, Mrs. V. J. Borman, Mrs. Clem Kortner, Mrs. Mabel Sowers, and Misses Florence Harris, Alice Kriesel, Theresa Appleman, Helena Wehmeyer, Kathryn Omlor, Helen Gass, Dorothy Miller, Jeanette Ehinger, Louise Thomas, Toots Keller, Mildred Niblick, Genevieve Berling, Winifred Kitchin, Genevieve Kitchin, Olga Reinking, and Florence Holthaus.

Fugitive From Home For Feeble Minded Found Here

A youth giving his name as Clarence Kellin, and his age as 20, escaped from the School for Feeble Minded Youth, at Fort Wayne late yesterday afternoon and was taken into custody here early this morning by Officers Berg Womack and Burl Johnson. The young man rode into Decatur in an automobile with two Decatur young men, who found him standing in the ditch beside the state road near the Nine Mile House, during the rain last night. After letting the youth out of their car, the Decatur young men informed the officers and they found him at the old interurban station. He was placed in the county jail and the superintendent stated that another youth, Jerome Glaser, was missing from the institution, also, and asked the local officers to watch for him. The Kellin youth said he formerly lived near Mt. Vernon, Indiana.
