EVANGELICAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Women's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church met Thursday afternoon in the church parlor with Mrs. Eugene Runyon, Mrs. Tom Kern and Mrs. Francis Eady as acting hostesses. Mrs. C. E. Hocker was the leader for the afternoon's program and taking the lesson from the study book "Moselem Women," spoke on the two countries of Egypt and Arabia. Mrs. Norman Dearing, of Hersey, Michigan, was a non-resident guest. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Miss Genevieve Berling will entertain the Auction Bridge Club at her home on South Fourth street, next Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

SHOWER FOR BRIDAL COUPLE

A miscellaneous shower was given Thursday evening, for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson at the home of Mrs. Jackson's brothers, John and Homer Bittner.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Ohler, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harden, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Chronister and son, Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bittner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kimberland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dehner and children, Mary Helen, Susan, Henry and Gene; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scherer and family, Freda, Ida, Edward and Francelle; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, Henry C. Bittner, Oscar, Walter and Norman Bittner, Hugo Blakley, Kermit Bowen, Kenneth Ohler, John Bittner, Homer Bittner, Berta Heath, Irma Bittner, Elma Blakley, Ross Blakley, and Monea Blakley. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson received many beautiful presents.

Mrs. Chronister, Mrs. Fred Bittner, Mrs. Henry Dehner and Miss Irma Bittner served a two-course lunch.

All departed, extending the best of wishes to the newly wedded pair.

Shaffer, and these people proved royal hostesses. The new officers of the class were in charge and the new committees for the year announced. Some new class plans were adopted and the class looks forward to some great things in the near future. Delicious refreshments were served. An exceptional large number were in attendance.

MISSION CIRCLE OF BAPTIST CHURCH

The Baptist Missionary Circle held their regular business meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Marsh on South Second street.

Twenty members were present and all brought gifts which are to be packed at once and sent to the Kathryn House, a children's home at Indiana Harbor, to provide a Christmas cheer for the children there. The amount of the "penny a day" collection amounted to eighteen dollars. At the close of the business session, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Strickler, served lovely refreshment. The next meeting which will be a study program, will be held with Mrs. Harry Thomas on North Thirteenth street.

DINNER GUESTS AT FORT WAYNE

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Horton, Mrs. C. S. Carey and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bell motored to Fort Wayne yesterday evening, where they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers.

FREEDOM PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

With Mrs. Slim Burk as hostess and Mrs. D. H. Campbell assisting hostess, the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church held a most interesting meeting at the Burk home on South First street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. James Fristoe conducted the study program for the afternoon and had as her topic "Christ and the Nations". The lesson comprised the fourth chapter of the year's study book "The Story of Missions". Several interesting sub-topics were also given. Plans were completed for a pot-luck dinner to be held at the church on October 13, at which time a Missionary Group meeting of several of the churches of

TELEPHONE GIRLS SHOWER MRS. MERRIMAN

The home of Miss Geraldine Smith, on South First street, furnished the setting for a very pretty party, Thursday evening, when the young ladies from the telephone office tendered a miscellaneous shower to Mrs. R. D. Merriman, who until recently was Miss Blanch Ritter and a local telephone operator. The home was decorated for the occasion in pink and white and all appointments of the evening were carried out in the prevailing color scheme. Bunco was played and Mrs. Merriman won first prize and Miss Kathryn Nichols won the consolation prize, which was in turn presented to the new bride. Piano, radio and Victrola music provided entertainment throughout the evening. The hostess, Miss Smith, then presented the gifts to the honor guest in behalf of the telephone girls. After these had been unwrapped and admired, the drawing of names was held for the annual Christmas party. Each name was placed in a walnut shell and sealed and each girl drew a walnut from the basket as it was passed around. As a fitting close to a delightful evening, Miss Smith served a most delicious two-course lunch. Those attending were: Mrs. Robert Merriman, Miss Kathryn Nichols, Mrs. Harry Stultz, Miss Marie Zeser, Miss Edna Miller, Miss Edna Theime, Miss Catherine Dixson, Miss Mabel Staley, Miss Reva Hammond, Miss Charlotte Reynolds, Miss Helen Gerber, Miss Stella Brown, Miss Stella Draper, Miss Margaret Hoyer, Miss Etola Gottschalk, Miss Laura Stanley and the hostess, Miss Geraldine Smith.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. E. G. Coverdale was hostess Thursday evening to the members of the Thursday evening Bridge Club at her home on North Second street. Six games of Bridge were played and Miss Fannie Hite was awarded the club prize and Mrs. Roy Archbold the guest prize. Guests besides the club members included: Mrs. Roy Archbold, Mrs. I. A. Kalver, Miss Mary Moses, of this city, and Mrs. Harry Jones, of Berne. Mrs. Jones assisted Mrs. Coverdale in serving refreshments at the close of the games. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Herman Ehinger, North Third street.

CHRISTIAN LADIES AID MET THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Henry Schultz at her home on Patterson street. A large crowd was in attendance and plans were completed for the cafeteria supper which will be held Saturday evening. Committees of the Bake Sale and Larkin Club reported thirty dollars as the proceeds of their endeavors. Refreshments of ice-cream, cake and coffee were served, Mrs. Schultz being assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Orine Schultz. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Wm. Kohls, corner of Eleventh and Nuttman avenue.

Mrs. Herman Ehinger will entertain the members of the Married Bridge Club, Sunday evening, at eight o'clock.
