with God, he loved Paul and Silas, bound up their wounds and gave them eats.

In the closing moments of the service last night, the pastor invited all who wanted such christian spirit and courage as Paul and Silas had to come forward around the altar with any who might realize they were like the jailer, lost and wanted salvation.

The closing moments of prayer and testimony were encouraging as many joined in prayer and expressed words of praise in a spirited testimony service.

Services continue tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Parlee will bring some more special numbers. Prayer meeting groups will be announced tonight for tomorrow.

CHURCH NOW

FREE OF DEBT

The Society was ready to build. Immediately, this was matched by Ed.
Macy. Mrs. Fred Linn said she was sure the Ladies' Aid would give $1,000 and Mr. Runyon said he felt free to suggest $500 from the Sunday school.

This was all spontaneous and no one had considered the launching of a building fund at this meeting. However, for some time it was apparent something must soon be done.

Then, to carry the enthusiasm still higher, the women had a surprise in the form of a song composed by Mrs.
Eugene Runyon, which as a body they sang. The song spoke of the loyalty of the Aid to the church. The chorus ran as follows:

"We're the happy Ladies' Aiders.
"We're the willing Ladies' Aiders."
"We're the helpful Ladies' Aiders."
We have helped to pay these notes.
We expect to aid right on."

Another surprise was in store when Mrs. John Fuhrman, on behalf of the Aid, presented Mrs. Linn with a beautiful end table and table lamp as a token of their appreciation of the wonderful services Mrs. Linn had rendered as president. Mrs. Linn is now serving her twentieth year as president.

Mr. Hocker then called on Henry A.
Fuhrman, the treasurer of the Building fund, for the notes. There were seven notes on the church totalling $10,200 and one note of $2,500 on the personage. He then called to the platform all the trustees; Eugene Runyon, Henry Barkley, H. A. Fuhrman, Earl Butler, and also two trustees at the time of the building of the church, Orval Harruff and Ed Macy. Mr. Runyon held a tray, and the Rev. R. W. Loose handed Mr. Hocker a match with which he set fire to the notes. Prof. Gerber then led the congregation in singing the long meter doxology, and Rev. Loose dismissed the audience with prayer.

A great many remained for the luncheon at the church, and a fine social evening was enjoyed. Some of the trustees and the pastor, in consultation, suggested that the pledges be of three-year duration, one-third due each year. They further felt the hour had struck for action and that at once plans should be studied for an enlarged church with the probable beginning of building operations in 1929. It was thought well at once to solicit for pledges from the congregation. This

An Old Recipe

to Darken Hair

By JANICE RANDALL

Almost everyone knows that Sage
Tea and Sulphur
properly combined, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, for only 75 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.
