If the state of Illinois desires to get along with but one senator to represent them, that's perhaps their

Senator Jim Watson will make a Watson campaign for the republican nomination for president, with Burt Thurman as manager—oh yum, yum.

Mrs. Mary Lee Bishop and Mrs. Rosa Lee Henderson were partners in a bridge game. Mrs. Henderson made two misplays so Mrs. Bishop pulled out a gun and shot her to death. Mrs. Bishop has just been sent to prison for life. It ought to be a good lesson for both of them.

The Cynic, a rocky magazine published by the University of Cincinnati, has been suspended on orders from the faculty because it had become indecent. Other colleges would do well to follow the precedent for most of them are as rotten as are those like Hot Dog, which have to be bootlegged to the public.

You have to have a ticket to get into the criminal court room at Indianapolis where the governor is on trial for conspiracy to commit a felony. The room seats about four hundred. They might move out to the fair grounds auditorium and charge admission.

Will Hays and James Goodrich, two organizers of more than Indiana fame are said to be back of the Hoover-for-president movement. If that's true, Senator Jimmy Watson may as well save his car fare to Kansas City. The latter is a "dirty duce" compared to the royal flush, these boys usually hold in politics.

Harry Leslie of Lafayette, a candidate for the republican nomination for governor has one opinion that ought to be unanimously agreed to. He is opposed to candidates using churches to make speeches to enhance their political fortune. We like to think of a church as a place where the strife and storm of life's battles do not enter. There ought to be some place where we can forget it.

There is often an argument over the size of Indiana's lakes. Wawasee is the largest, with 3,528 acres; Lake Maxenuckee, next, with about half the number of acres; Lake James follows, with 1,149 acres, and Sylvan Lake, with 1,100. All other lakes have less than 1,000 acres. Tippencanoe Lake is the deepest, with a depth of 223 feet in one place. Wawasee, Oliver and Adams have an extreme depth of 91 feet, while Maxenuckee and Lake James have 88 and 85 feet, respectively, as their greatest depth.

Claude Bowers, of the New York Evening World, will probably be invited to make the nominating speech for Governor Al Smith and Claude is the boy who could do that job just about right. A few years ago he was secretary for Senator Kern, later became editor of the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette and from there went to the World. Folks out this way have known for years that he was an orator of unusual ability but it took his speech at the recent democratic committee meeting in Washington to establish him in the east. He put that over in such a manner that he is now recognized and if he consents to nominate Al Smith at Houston, you may expect a master piece.

If every city the size of Decatur in the country needs a federal building, and most of them have them, we can't understand why this city is annually caromed off. We know enough about legislative and administrative government and how it operates to know that when there is sufficient demand from back home, they grant the requests. It seems that those here who have the proper "pull" do not care to ask for such an improvement or at least to insist. It's a shame for such a building would be a credit and a convenience. What's to be done about it? Nothing as usual?

Hickman is sane, the jury finds and he will know Saturday whether he must hang or go to prison for life. His plea was "not guilty on the sole ground of insanity," which in that state means that the only thing to try is the question of whether he knew right from wrong. Officials of California, but it looks foolish. Governor Small has re-appointed Frank Smith, who has been twice rejected and he announces he will again be a candidate. Leaders of the senate tell them in advance he will not be admitted and since they have the power to seat the members or not, it would appear to be a waste of time.
