The Indiana League of Home Dailies.

It really begins to look as though little "black boxes" and little "black bags" will not be in style the coming campaign.

Wear an Old Home Week button.
Help make the citizenship of Decatur a big partnership. That's what it means.

Wet as the republican papers and news agencies paint several of the democratic candidates for president, we doubt if any of them would have the nerve to appoint one of the greatest distillers of the country in charge of the enforcement laws.

They ought to build a plank out about seven miles in Lake Michigan and start that Indiana Harbor fiend out on it with a few hot poker behind to urge him to keep moving until he has joined his little sons and their mother whom he sent them to join.

The home coming reception for Frank C. Dailey at Bluffton this evening will be one of the big political meetings of its kind in the state this year and a number from this county will enjoy it. The campaign is warming up and bids fair to be a real, old fashioned one.

Those oil operators would have us believe that during a campaign they just throw their dollars around, $185,000 at a clip, without any idea of how or when it is coming back. Of course to swallow it your bump of credulity has to be well developed.

The court has ordered "Bud" Fisher, who makes a very good living, we are informed, by dishing out "Mutt and Jeff" each day, to pay his estranged wife four hundred dollars a week.
That would be about fifty-two times what the average newspaper man could pay but we are not going to argue that Bud is an average.

Now lets go out and put Old Home Week over without any joking. We have had enough of the preliminary introduction and we're ready for business. We wish a thousand people of this community would send in a five-dollar bill by return mail. It perhaps won't come that easy but we are sure it will come.

By the way, is nothing further to be done about demanding the resignation of the governor? Surely if the republican press is as powerful as they have been claimed, they will not stop by sending a telegram or two to the state committee. They can sew things up to such an extent that something will have to be done—if they wish to.

Business conditions are improving as we were sure they would as spring opened. Live communities will step forward and do things. What will we do? Lets get busy and stay busy until we have landed an industry or two. With our local plants all running full time, a little progress right now would mean much. Its all up to us.

Adams county seems to be having a little bad luck just at the close of a successful basketball season, which should make every good sport just "buckle in" the stronger with a determination to make good in the next battle, whether it be in sport, studies or in business. The world is full of battles and disappointments and surprises and the best sport meets them with a smile and fights on.

Members of the United States senate have asked the secretary of labor for an official report on unemployment in the country, claiming that President Coolidge and the administration have lulled the country into a false feeling of security when in reality four million men are out of work. The hard times may be made an issue of the coming campaign unless there is a spurt of business with some indications of it lasting.

The proper thing of course to do in the face of what may become a scarlet fever epidemic is to use good common sense and fight it by being careful. In the old days it used to be deemed necessary to keep such things "under cover" as much as possible but advanced methods of preventing epidemics by scientific medical means now makes it only necessary that everybody use as much care and caution as possible.

Mrs. William Rozay of Chicago, has asked the police to aid her in finding her "hubby" whom she describes as the "ideal man." We have often wondered just what kind of a gentleman that would be and we are therefore greatly interested in her description.
She says that her William, who walked out of the house the other day and failed to return has these virtues: He always called her pet names, never quarreled, always helped her with the dishes, loved her cooking, consulted her about everything, kissed her thirty times a day and never dropped ashes on the rugs. Wonder if it would be contempt of court to ask if the dishes have been washed since he left?

William Woods Plankington, son of a Milwaukee multi-millionaire, recently inherited four million dollars and everybody expected him to loll around and enjoy spending it. He is just twenty-one years old and has a job in a construction engineer's office at twenty dollars per week and his boss says he is one of the best men he has in his office. Bill wants to be an engineer and some body, that is, he wants to really accomplish something for himself and so he has surprised everybody by declaring that he prefers to go right on with his job.
He hasn't time for night clubs and wild parties and at night as well as in day time is thinking of his work.
You just bet a fellow made with that stuff will make good even when burdened with four million dollars.

Tips For Taxpayers

Charitable contributions and gifts are deductible within the limitations of the revenue act. In order that a deduction may be made, contributions to a corporation, trust, community chest fund or foundation must meet several tests. Such organizations must be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. No part of its income must inure to the benefit of private stockholders or individuals.

Every church constitutes a religious corporation for the purpose of this deduction. Contributions made to a missionary fund to church building funds, for the benefit of other activities, of the church are deductible. Pew rents, assessments and dues paid to churches are regarded as contributions.

Gifts to an individual are not deductible, but it made to a charitable organization, as defined by the revenue act, may be deducted even though the organization distributes the gifts among individual beneficiaries.

Contributions made to the United States, the District of Columbia, any state or territory or any "political subdivision thereof" for "exclusively public purposes" are deductible. A gift of real estate to be maintained perpetually as a public park is deductible.

Taxpayers are required to state in their returns the name and address of each organization to which the gift is made, the approximate date, and the amount of the gift in each case.

"RHEUMATISM KEPT ME IN MIS- ERY", SHE SAYS

Konjola Relieved Her Of All Aches and Pains After 9 Years Suffering

MRS. MARY YOUNG

"Rheumatism kept me in constant misery for nine years and nothing would help me until I got Konjola, which gave me quick and lasting relief," said Mrs. Mary Young, Union, Ill. (near Elgin.)

"During these severe attacks of this dreadful ailment, my body was a solid mass of aches and pains. The joints would be swollen and stiff and I could hardly move or raise my arms and it was difficult for me to go up or down the stairs. My knees and hips were effected the most. At last I had to give up my housework. My stomach was in such a bad condition that I was afraid to eat for fear of the pain afterward.

"I started with Konjola and today I am free of every ache and pain in my body. I can walk as good as any one and never feel tired or worn-out.
My stomach trouble has cleared up and everything I eat digests perfectly. I rest easier at night and I always feel fine in the mornings. I am glad to endorse such a medicine."

Konjola is sold in Decatur at Smith, Yager & Falk Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this section.

Or Your Money Back. That's the Plan on Which Emerald Oil Is Sold by All Good Druggists.

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your skin a real chance to get well.

You've probably been, like a lot of other people, convinced that the only thing to use was an ointment or salve (some of them are very good) but in the big majority of cases these sticky salves simply clog the pores and the condition primarily remains the same.

Go to any good druggist today and get an original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil.

(The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your skin troubles will be a thing of the past.

Don't expect a single bottle to do it all at once but one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered one way to restore your skin to perfect health.

Remember that Moore's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.
