Farmer's might try to raise a crop of baseball players, we notice that one sold the other day for $100,000.

Tomorrow is the last day for candidates for president to file in the Indiana primaries and Senator Watson's anxiety will soon be over.

We noticed a robin this morning but we couldn't tell whether it was the first one of spring or the last one of last autumn.

If Hoover is elected he won't notice much difference, except he'll have a new desk, says an exchange. Yes, and a salary six times as large.

Some one has suggested that if the new fuelless motor is as wonderful as claimed it may operate a political machine as well as any other. Some one page Harry Sinclair or Will Hays.

The roads of Adams county are in fair condition. Help Superintendent Magley keep them that way. Don't overload your trucks during the spring season.

We can understand how the fellow who is getting by will accept the prosperity talk but its just a little peculiar that they can push it down the throats of the four million men who are out of work in this country.

Perhaps a lot of our people feel that since the absent voter's ballot has been done away with and the boys and girls have to come home if they wish to vote, we won't need an Old Home Week.

Couldn't Oklahoma save money and energy by buying a tack for the governor's chair?—Kessinger's Mid-West Review.

Not if their "gov" is as tough as some. We know of one without mentioning names, who has been sitting on a whole flock of tacks for months and insists he enjoys it.

An eastern judge has held that a rich defendant in a divorce suit must pay alimony to his wife and two dogs, it having been shown that the cost of maintenance is about even and since he bought the pups for his wife he must keep them. As Col. Henderson would say, "Doggone."

Arthur Gilliom, attorney general, will be a candidate for the republican for United States senator and will start off fighting the anti-saloon league and other forces in the state which should at least add to the color of the mix-up. Its going to get real good, we can see that.

Henry L. Mencken, leading exponent of "whatever is, is wrong," in this country and who actually makes a living at it by writing articles that no one ought to waste time reading is now headlining with the wise "crack" that the middle west is the "corn and Bible belt." What's wrong with that? Surely there can be no disgrace in sticking to either.

We have heard many people ask what's the good of all this rush of weather with this new face powder MELLO-GLO. Does not give the skin a dry feeling; does not clog the pores; is not affected so much by perspiration.
Stays on longer. So pure and fine. MELLO-GLO is made by a new French Process. It's truly wonderful. to millions in a year. For instance the banks of Kansas City gain $7,500 a month by speeding their cash across the country in a plane.

Hubert Schmitt, chairman of the finance committee has not given up Old Home Week by any manner of means. He has several ideas that he has not announced yet and he fully expects to secure a thousand members to the club and what Hubert starts out to do he usually finishes.
Get back of him and help him put this over. Such an event will be a fine tonic for the community and will provide a great week for every one.

Candidates names can be filed for a month beginning this week. The books close April 6th and then the battle will be on in earnest. There have been changes in the laws, the absent voter's ballots and the registration statutes having been done away with, but the old election laws stand. Every candidate must file his intentions of being a candidate with the county clerk, this even including candidates for committeemen.

Plans are being made to take an Indiana delegation to the Houston convention, leaving Indianapolis, June 22nd. There will be from two to three hundred and the train will be known as the Woollen Special. The men will wear white trousers and white hats and carry hickory canes.
Enroute they will be entertained at Louisville, Montgomery, Biloxi and New Orleans, spending twelve hours in the latter city. The train will arrive in Houston Monday morning of convention week and a fine time is anticipated.

Two thousand men and women, democrats and republicans, gave Frank C. Dailey, a democratic candidate for governor, a rousing homecoming welcome at the Bluffton auditorium last evening, in what was perhaps the most enthusiastic political meeting held in Indiana so far this year. Delegations from every county in the northeast section of the state were there and they yelled and yelled for Dailey. There is real steam back of the movement to make Frank Dailey governor and it seems to refuse to do any thing but grow.
About fifty from this county attended the meeting. The banquet which preceeded the program was attended by six hundred, full capacity of the big hall.

Washington reports say that opening of major operations by U. S. troops, long predicted by President Wilson, are due to commence soon, as April usually has been chosen for such attacks in the past, troops and supplies to General Pershing are moving on schedule time.

Germany, in last few days, has made five raiding attacks on the U. S. position in Lorraine, all of which have been ineffective.

HEALTH TROUBLES
VANISHED SINCE
HE GOT KONJOLA

Tells How New Medicine Ended His Neuritis
Suffering

MR. J. W. BRANDT
"I suffered with neuritis about six years and never thought I would find a medicine to help me, but Konjola ended every ache and pain I had and it is a pleasure to endorse this new remedy to everybody," said Mr. J. W.
Brandt, Onward, Ind. (near Peru).

"This neuritis was centered in my arms, shoulder and neck. The pains kept getting worse in recent years and I began to suffer almost constantly.
Even the weight of a coat on my shoulders would drive me to torture.
The pains were terrible and many times I was willing to give anything for a minute's relief. Besides this neuritis, I had intestinal trouble and constipation."

Konjola is sold in Decatur at Smith Yager & Falk's drug store and by all druggists in all towns throughout this section.

Pensions paid by a corporation or individual to retired employees for services rendered are taxable. Pensions paid by the United States Government are also taxable, except as to amounts received as compensation, family allotments, and allowances under the provisions of the war risk insurance and vocational rehabilitation acts, or as pensions from the United States for services of the beneficiary or another in the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war, or as a State pension for services rendered by the beneficiary or another for which the State is paying a pension.

Allowances, whether paid by the Federal or State Government, or private individuals to one who performed no duties, as for example, a widow in recognition of services performed by her husband, are regarded as gifts and are not taxable.
