CHICAGO CANINE SHOW DISPLAYS U.S. CHAMPIONS

By Copeland C. Burg,
INS Staff Correspondent
Chicago, Ill. — Some of the finest blue-blooded canines in America will be displayed as star dogs of the East compete for honors with the best in Chicago and the midwest at the 27th annual show of the Chicago Kennel Club, March 30.

A bitter "dog fight" is forecast in the show chow entries. Mrs. H. Earl Hoover of Glenview, Ill., owner of some of the most perfect chows in the world, will send her choice dogs against those of Eugene Byfield of Barrington, Ill. Among the Hoover entries will be Chooan Brilliantine of Manchover, valued at $10,000 and winner of the award for the best of all dogs, regardless of breed, at last year's Chicago show.

Pogo of Kang Shi, a champion chow, will be among the chief entries from the Byfield kennels.

Highest Priced Dog
Mrs. Geraldine Rockefeller Dodge of New York, granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, will enter her brilliant shepherd, Cito von der Marktfeste, said to be the highest priced dog in America. Mrs. Dodge is reported to have refused $25,000 for the animal.

Another "society canine" expected to attract much interest at the show here is Larkbeare, a hound from the kennels of a nobleman of Afghanistan and winner of honors in India and England. The hound is the property of H. C. Lust, Chicago lawyer and sportsman.

East and west will meet in a battle for awards in the wire-haired fox terrier classes.

Imported Dogs
In the wire-haired division will be glimpsed an imported English champion, Confident of Courtwood, owned by Alexander H. Stewart, of Chicago. The English dog will be shown here for the first time in America, after winning numerous blue ribbons on the other side. Richard Bondy of New York and Reginald M. Lewis of Ridgefield, Conn., will be among the leading eastern fanciers represented in the wire hair classes. Haskell Benson of Maywood, Ill., will help uphold the west's honors in this section.

Gains Great Surprise, owned by Bondy, won top honors among the wire hairs last year.

Modern Girl Makes Wonderful Mother, Is View of Hospital Head

London. — (INS) — Whatever hard things have been said about the modern girl, there is no denying the fact she emerges from the trials and tribulations of motherhood with flying colors, in the opinion of Miss Edith Barwell, matron of the Belgrave hospital for children here.

"The men of today should not be afraid of the modern girl. She makes a wonderful mother," according to Miss Barwell.

With lifelong experience of mothers, girls and babies, Miss Barwell's opinion is worthy of respect. She is retiring shortly after thirty years' service with the hospital.

"Don't think the modern girl does not want a home and babies, Miss Barwell declared in an interview. "She does. What she may say to the contrary is sheer pretense.

"I have seen thousands of modern mothers, and they loved their babies as passionately as babies were ever loved. I have known girls who used lipstick and powder, who went to dances and who appeared to want nothing more than amusements. They married—just as all girls hope to—and they are among the world's best mothers."

BUILD EXTENSION TO WESTMINSTER ABBEY

London. — (INS) — For the first time in two centuries, an extension to Westminster Abbey is to be built. Preparations are now under way for the project, and actual construction work is to be started in the near future.

The extension is to be a Gothic building, which will be erected on the grass plot lying between St. Margaret's Church and the sanctuary of the Abbey. The new building will be used as a sacristy — a small chamber or vestry where sacred utensils and vestments are kept. Few people realize that the Abbey, the most famous church in the British Empire, at present has no sacristy whatever.

Following a storm of protest last November, when large extensions to the Abbey were proposed by a commission, the Dean and Chapter have chosen a site for the new sacristy, which they believe will least detract from the architectural unity of the national shrine.

Construction of the new building was decided upon because of the need of space for robing ceremonies in connection with the many official ceremonies at the Abbey.

Filipino Boy Dies Saving American Girl

Shanghai. — (UP) — A tale of staunch heroism recently came from a street in the International Settlement where Japanese, Filipinos and American boys play baseball.

Pedro Diaz, 11-year-old Filipino, was at bat. A ball thrown by Young Toto, a 10-year-old Japanese pitcher, came toward him. Pedro swung and connected. The ball sped to the distant outfield. The boy rounded first, second, and headed for third.

But at that moment a motor car driven by a Chinese, turned up the street. At the same time Dorothy Jane Morgan, three, the daughter of an American resident, wandered out on the diamond.

Pedro forgot the ball game and dashed for the little girl. He was able to push her out of the way just as the automobile, its brakes creaking, slowed its pace.

The boy was hit. He was taken at once to the General Hospital, but the best medical aid that could be engaged was powerless. He died on the operating table.

COLLEGE WOMEN OPEN FIGHT ON BEAUTY CONTEST

Denver. — (INS) — Beauty contests in universities and colleges are rapidly receiving the expressed disapproval of many western deans of women: Anne M. Shuler, dean of Women at the University of Denver emphatically denounced beauty contests for college women because it lowers the women's standards.

"The only word that I can use for beauty contests" said Dean Shuler, "is that they are a complete insanity. Beauty contests put a wrong value upon beauty, making physical grace as apparently the only standard of achievement."

Insult To Girls
"It is degrading and insulting to the girls whose brains are entirely overlooked. The co-eds are put on the level with Follies girls and surely they are on a higher level than these song and dance girls."

If the time and effort spent in applying make-up were applied to beautifying the mind and spirit, girls would find themselves more beautiful in the end than any amount of cosmetics would make them.

"The abolishment of beauty contests would undoubtedly raise the reputation of the modern university in the eyes ## of the public."

Leaves Disapprove

Dean Schuler contends that modern women compare themselves with women of primeval times when they submit themselves to beauty contests, women of those days valued form and figure to be exploited at man's will.

Miss Lucy Van Cott, dean of women at the University of Utah, through an article published in the Utah Chronicle, the student paper, added her word of disapproval.

"In the beauty selection many beautiful girls are left out and those chosen are picked by judges ignorant of personality and spirit of the contest. Judging is done on a purely external and inadequate basis."
