SHUMAKER AND GILLIOM MIX

Indianapolis, April 3—(U.P.)—Denying that the Ku Klux Klan had backed him politically in 1924, Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom today struck back at alleged statements made by E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, and in so doing he branded Shumaker's "charges" as "infernal falsehoods."

Shumaker, in a letter made public in South Bend, stated "I am informed that his (Gilliom's) nomination at the state convention was due to the influence of D. C. Stephenson, who became his champion."

"Emphatically, I have never been linked up with the Ku Klux Klan," Gilliom said.

Shumaker's letter came as a surprise in view of the fact that it was generally thought that the Klan had opposed Gilliom and Gilliom has given credence to this belief by his incessant fighting of the hooded order.

The Shumaker letter, which was presented to the South Bend Ministerial association, was written to the Rev. William Brandon, Shumaker said.

"I did not know for what purpose the letter was to be used," the dry leader continued, "but it was perfectly satisfactory with me for Mr. Brandon to present it to the Ministerial Association at South Bend. I don't really know that Stephenson supported Gilliom but I have heard that such was the case and I believe it."

This Man Tells How Konjola Ended Years Of Suffering

MR. ROBERT FISHER

That Konjola is helping hundreds of people who were never benefited before is shown by a report received from Mr. Robert Fisher, Flat Rock, Ind. (near Shelbyville.)

"Konjola was the only medicine that relieved me of stomach trouble and constipation," said Mr. Fisher. "Poisons had gathered in my system and I could not get rid of them because of constipation. I had to live on a diet for a long time. My kidneys bothered me and I never could get a full night's rest because of them. I had been suffering with these miseries for years, and was never able to find a remedy that could do any good. 'I decided to try Konjola and this was the first medicine that ever helped me. It relieved my constipation completely and then cleared up my stomach trouble. My kidneys never bother me any more. I feel one hundred per cent better and my health has improved in many other ways. Konjola is wonderful and I am only too glad to endorse it."

Konjola is sold in Decatur at Smith Yager & Falk drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.
