South Bend, Ind., May 4—(U.P.)—The prediction was made here that if Cordell Hull of Nashville, Tenn., were put up as the running mate of Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York, Smith would sweep the Houston Convention and build materially his position in the old south.

Paul J. Kruesi of Chattanooga, who is touring Indiana with Oscar Foellinger, Indiana manager for Herbert Hoover, made the prediction, and added that Hoover, if nominated in Kansas City, would carry Tennessee by 30,000 to 50,000 majority.

Only President Coolidge or Hoover can compete successfully against Smith in the Presidential race. Kruesi declared. He predicted 3 to 1 victory for Hoover in Indiana over Senator Watson.

A Message To Theatregoers . . .

This theatre has always made it a policy to show the people of Decatur and surrounding community the best of pictures and to show them at the earliest possible release date. In many cases it shows them even before the large city theatres.

To provide the public with superior entertainment on Sunday and Monday, we arrange to show extra big productions—which are MUCH HIGHER IN PRICE than the week-day pictures. To do this we are unable to reduce our admission price. We feel you want the better pictures and are willing to pay our established SUNDAY AND MONDAY PRICE FOR THEM.

To further add to your comforts while enjoying a good show, we have equipped our theatre with new cushioned seats, a new life size screen and new machine equipment.

Yours for better pictures,

CORT THEATRE
