TENSENESS FELT OVER STATE ON EVE OF ELECTION

Both Sides Claim Victory
Both sides claim victory. Whether the claims are the usual pre-election optimistic views of political workers or are based on sound information remains to be seen.

Hoover forces have made a determined fight in the state. They believe that if the secretary of commerce can carry this state his nomination at the national convention will be a virtual certainty.

Watson forces—backed by the powerful republican state organization—say their candidate will win "in a walk." They do not hesitate to predict that "Watson will win by a larger majority than that which sent him to the senate in 1926." He received a majority of approximately 160,000 votes in that race.

For Hoover the test really will be of national importance because of the farm relief issue. Indiana is the first of the solid farm states of the middle-west which will express its views regarding Hoover and the farm questions.

The Hoover backers have asserted they believe their candidate will carry the state by an overwhelming majority.

Political observers believe that Watson will have little trouble garnering most of the votes south of Indianapolis. But they think that the strong Calumet district and northwestern Indiana may "go to Hoover."

Hoover has repeatedly claimed he will carry the industrial sections. Watson, standing on his record of "always for farm legislation" asserts he has little to fear from the farm vote.

There are some who believe that if only a normal vote is cast, Watson will win because of his strong organization. But on the other hand they predict that a record vote would turn the tide in Hoover's favor, 4-8. The national issue has so far completely shadowed senatorial races.

Ten republicans and seven democrats seek the governor's chair, while three republicans and a like number of democrats want the Washington position.

In the senatorial race, United States Senator Arthur R. Robinson is seeking re-election. He is opposed by Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom and Solon J. Carter, former Marion county judge.

Carter and Gilliom have concentrated their fire on Robinson. Robinson flatly charged that the senator is a "protégé of D. C. Stephenson" and Gilliom accused Robinson of being backed by the klan.

This race is expected to be so hotly contested that neither candidate will obtain a majority, leaving it up to the state republican convention to choose the nominee. The law provides that in event no candidate receives a majority the convention will pick the nominee.

Three democrats, Albert Stump, Walter Myers, and W. L. Curry, also seek democratic nomination.

Republicans who seek the governor's chair are Thomas H. Adams, Vincennes editor; Charles W. Jewett, Indianapolis; Frederick Landis, former congressman; Harry G. Leslie, speaker of the house; Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary of state; Alvah J. Rucker, former Marion county prosecutor; Jesse E. Eschback, former speaker of the house; U. S. Lesh, former attorney general; Charles E. Ewry, Portland, and D. Burns Douglass, Fort Wayne.

Democratic gubernatorial candidates are Frank C. Dailey, former United States district attorney; Earl Crawford, former member of the state highway commission; John E. Fredrick, Kokomo manufacturer; George Dale, Muncie editor; Samuel Wells, Scottsburg; George Herberman, Crown Point, member of the state highway commission; and Orlin R. Heit, Kokomo.

McKenzie Is Suspended

New York, May 7—(AP)—William McKechnie, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and former manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was today suspended for three days by John A. Heydier, President of the National League, for his alleged abuse of umpire Pitman in the dugout after yesterday's double-header between the Cards and Brooklyn Dodgers at St. Louis it was Heydier's first suspension of the season.

ACCIDENTS CLAIM LIVES OF SEVEN

(U.P.)

Seven persons were dead in Indiana today as the result of week-end accidents.

Gordon Huffer, 10 near Warsaw, accidentally was fatally wounded by his brother Paul, while the latter and Glen Powers, a friend, were hunting ground hogs.

Ray Miller, 35, farmer, died of injuries received when a tractor he was operating on his farm near Noblesville overturned. His death was the third in Hamilton county this spring in similar accidents.

Mrs. John Cunningham, 63, and James Runkle, died when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by an interurban car at Delphi. Elmer Anderson, 38, Anderson, was killed instantly when a Big Four passenger train struck the automobile he was driving at a crossing two miles south of Pendleton.

Mrs. Henry Cline, 58, Spencer, died instantly when an automobile driven by her husband struck a telephone pole and overturned twice.

George Huevel, 29, Indianapolis was burned fatally in his home.

VOTERS OF ADAMS COUNTY URGED TO GO TO THE POLLS

Harlow, of Geneva, are making a last-minute effort to complete their organization. All three of the candidates have made a thorough canvass in the county and indications are the contest will be close.

County Treasurer Ed Ashbacher, Sheriff Earl "Spot" Hollingsworth,
