COURT HOUSE

Wife Seeks Divorce
Esther Davis, of Decatur, has filed suit in the Adams circuit court for a divorce from Paul Davis. The couple were married January 31, 1925 and separated May 17, 1928. Mrs. Davis alleges that her husband struck and beat her on divers times and called her vile and indecent names. Mrs. Davis asks for a divorce, the custody of their one child, and alimony in the sum of $500. Upon petition of the plaintiff, the court issued a restraining order, restraining the defendant from visiting the plaintiff at her home, 217 North Sixth street, and from disposing of his automobile and household goods. Mrs. Davis also filed an application for suit money. Attorney H. M. DeVoss is counsel for the plaintiff.

Estate Opened
Letters of administration have been issued to Benjamin H. Elzey in the estate of Edna A. Elzey. He filed bond in sum of $50.

A petition for the admission of Eliza Winters to the Richmond State Hospital has been filed in circuit court.

Highest Form of Laces

Church laces are usually the finest examples of lace making which artists can design and fingers execute. Much of the finest lace has been made by nuns in convents. Venetian points are considered the most beautiful and elaborate laces known, made entirely with the needle.

"Home Brew" in Belgium

Home brewing, frowned on by prohibitionists and agents of the law in these United States, is still considered in Belgium just as necessary and moral as baking bread. In many secluded monasteries beer is still made by the monks just as they did in the Middle Ages. In one, the monastery of Saint Sixte, at Poperinghe, the monks are not allowed to speak to one another.—Indianapolis Star.

CONVENTION OF REPUBLICANS TO OPEN WEDNESDAY

Logansport; Charles W. Jewett, Indianapolis; and Harry G. Leslie, speaker of the house. The fifth candidate, Thomas H. Adams, Vincennes was looked upon with uncertainty. Observers hesitated to predict what effect his "new deal" slogan in the primary campaign would have on the delegates. He was third in the primary.

It will require 670 votes to receive the nomination. Many reports circulated to the effect that Schortemeier will receive between 425 and 475 votes on the first ballot.

An announcement came from M. Bert Thurman, presidential campaign manager for U. S. Sen. James E. Watson, that his support of Jewett did not mean the senior senator was behind the Indianapolis man. Senator Watson was to arrive from Washington today.

It was not believed that a heated battle would center around the delegates to the national Republican convention. The seven delegates at large may see the hottest battle. Reports were that the Watson organization leaders had frowned upon the custom of appointing the governor as one of the seven. Also the reports were that Postmaster General Harry S. New might not be one of them. New endorsed Herbert Hoover in the recent fight against Watson.

Indications today were that the following stood a good chance of nomination as the seven delegates at large: Senator Watson, Senator Arthur R. Robinson, Henry W. Marshall Lafayette, publisher; E. F. Kitzelman Muncie manufacturer; Ed Bowen, Delphi; Miss Eleanor Snodgrass, state woman manager for Watson; and E. E. Neal, publisher of the Noblesville Ledger.

The districts appear to have agreed on their delegates. There were reports that the fourth, eighth and thirteenth districts were still uncertain but the others were thought to be fairly certain.

The following are the district delegate slates which were thought to be those which would be handed in for nomination:

First district—Stuart Fisher of Princeton and Ben Huffman of Rockport.

Second district—David Scott of Linton and Ewing Emison of Vincennes.

Third district—M. Bert Thurman of New Albany and James Tucker of Salem.

Fourth district—(Probably) Rollin Turner of Greensburg and Mrs. Estella Prince of Brownstown.

Fifth district—George Nattkemper of Terre Haute and Glenn H. Brown of Greencastle.

Sixth district—John Millikan of Newcastle and Oliver Lafuse of Liberty.

Eighth district—George Ball of Muncie and Alfred A. Kist of Portland or Mrs. James Larimore of Anderson.

Ninth district—John Owen of Noblesville and Walter Dixon of Kokomo.

Tenth district—Walter C. Riley of East Chicago and Lawrence E. Lyons of Brooks.

Eleventh district—Roy Wertenberger of Wabash and B. F. Vanwhinkle of Hartford City.

Twelfth district—Ralph Gates of Columbia City and Fred Bodenhafer of Kendallville.

Thirteenth district—(Probable) Ernest Morris of South Bend and Mrs. Martha Gold of Knox.

SENATE PASSES REVENUE BILL

New Measures Would Save Federal Taxpayers Huge Sum Annually

Washington, May 22.—(U.P.)—Federal taxpayers will save approximately $203,000,000 annually if the house accepts the revenue bill it received today from the senate and President Coolidge signs the measure.

The bill passed the senate late last night carrying substantially the sum recommended by the finance committee on the basis of treasury department estimates. It had been debated more than three weeks.

As originally passed by the house last December, the bill provided for a $239,000,000 tax cut, but senate amendments reduced the total about $86,000,000. The original and the amended bills now go to conference for adjustment of differences.

The senate measure is expected to prevail, however, since it is based on March 15 tax returns, unknown when the house passed the first bill, and because it is understood to have administration approval.

Principal provisions of the senate bill are:

1. Reduction of the tax rate on corporation incomes from 13 1/2 to 12 1/2 percent and increased exemption from $2,000 to $3,000. Total reduction $94,000,000.

2. Downward revision of surtax rates on individual incomes of from $20,000 to $80,000 a year. Total reduction $25,000,000.

3. Repeal of the 3 percent automobile excise tax. Total reduction $56,000,000.

4. Increased exemption on admissions, except to prize fights, from 75 cents to $3. Total reduction $17,000,000.

5. Complete publicity for income tax returns.

While acting as a committee of the whole, the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Simmons, Dem., N. C., ranking minority member of the finance committee, providing for a graduated tax of from 5 to 9 percent on corporation incomes below $15,000, but reversed the action before passing the bill last night.

The vote on Simmons' proposal was 33 to 33, divided on strictly party lines except for Senator McMaster, Repn., S. D., who voted with Democrats for the amendment. Vice-President Dawes cast the deciding ballot against it. Adoption of the amendment would have provided additional tax reduction of $24,000,000. Final vote on the measure was not recorded. Dawes immediately appointed the conferees—Senators Smoot, Utah, Reed, Pa., and McLean, Conn., Republicans; and Senator Simmons, N. C., and Gerry, R. I., Democrats.
