MISS ESTHER FUHRMAN HONORED BY S. S. CLASS

Miss Esther Fuhrman, whose marriage to Mr. Roland Sprunger, of Geneva, will be an event of June 9, was guest of honor at a pretty pre-nuptial party, given Saturday evening, by her Sunday school teacher, Mrs. S. P. Sheets, at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Jones. The affair was a complete surprise for Miss Fuhrman. Several clever contests furnished entertainment throughout the evening, prizes being won by Merle Sheets, Sue Zimmerman, Lois Fuhrman and Dorothy Sprunger. The prizes were in turn presented to the bride-elect. The prospective bride and groom were then given slips of direction which started them on a treasure quest. At each stopping place, they found orders to move on to some other point, the trail finally leading to the treasure, which proved to be a beautiful end table, a gift of the class. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Guests other than the class members were Miss Dorothy Sprunger, of Muncie, and Miss Sue Zimmerman, of Decatur.

Important Letter Change

A. T. C. Hansard in Typographia (printed in London, 1825) says: "The introduction of the round 's' instead of the long is an improvement in the art of printing, for which we are indebted to the ingenious Mr. Bell, who introduced them in his edition of the British theater, published 1791-1802."

Rid of Neuritis and Stomach Pains

Was Tortured by Gas and Kidney Pains. Trouble Quickly Ended.

Readers who are tortured by stomach trouble, kidney pains or rheumatism, will find good news in a report made by Mrs. Iva Newton, Goshen Ave., Route 1, Elkhart, Ind. She describes her recovery as follows:

"Anyone who has stomach torture as I have had it, need not be told what it means to face the fearful pain, gas, and indigestion that follows every meal. I had bilious attacks, headaches, dizzy spells, and often black spots would appear before my eyes. My kidneys bothered me night and day. Neuritis gave me constant pain in the shoulders, and my back ached like a sore tooth all the time. Sleep was almost impossible. I tried everything I could hear of, and finally gave Viuna a trial. Wonderful as it may seem, after the first few doses, the back-ache I had never been free from for 2 years, left me, and it has never returned. Before long my kidneys stopped bothering me and my neuritis faded away. Now, I can truthfully say my stomach trouble is gone, too. I can eat anything without gas, pain or any distress, and my constipation is wholly relieved. I sleep like a baby, get up full of pep in the morning, and feel better than I have for years."

Viuna acts promptly on sluggish bowels, lax liver and weak kidneys. It purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores appetite and digestion, and brings new strength and energy to the whole body. Take a bottle on trial. Then if you're not glad you tried Viuna, your money will be refunded. $1 at druggists or mailed postpaid by Iceland Medicine Co., Indianapolis, Ind.
