At Least 20 Killed In Indiana Over Week-End
Indianapolis, June 25.—(U.P.)—At least 20 persons were dead today as the result of accidents over the week-end, a survey of the state showed. It was one of the bloodiest week-ends of 1928. Grade crossing crashes between automobiles and trains counted for ten fatalities and automobile accidents alone counted for four more.

Thirty Hurt When Train Is Derailed In Kansas
Iola, Kans., June 25.—(U.P.)—Thirty persons were injured, three seriously when three cars of a Missouri Pacific train were derailed on a bridge near Duran today.

The derailed cars plunged over the bridge to the creek, about 15 feet below.

May Be Drafted

John W. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain and a candidate for the nomination in 1924, is a member of the New York delegation en route to Houston. Many experts believe that in event of a deadlock in the balloting, Davis may be a compromise nominee.

TO AWARD SCOUT HONORS TUESDAY

Mr. Stanley Putnam of New York, who is leading an expedition to Africa this summer, has selected two Eagle Scouts to accompany him. Their expenses will be paid by Mr. Putnam. This is a rare opportunity and Mr. Putnam made the offer only to those who held this high rank.

Winning the Eagle Badge is no small task and anyone who can achieve such an honor brings credit upon the Community. Decatur Scouts who are seeking this honor should be encouraged to continue their good work.

Those receiving Merit badges are as follows: James Burk, Civics, First Aid and Reptile Study; George Helm, First Aid.

Those receiving Second Class pins are: Richard Parrish, Bruce Wallace, Edward DeBolt, Robert Kleinhenz, Carl Lose, Edward Lose, Marcellus Miller, Joseph Straub, Julius Baker, and Herbert Foos.

The members of the Court of Honor are J. L. Kocher, chairman; the Rev. H. H. Ferntheil, C. E. Peterson, R. E. Mumma, Herman Gillig, W. Guy Brown, Dan Nibleck Joe Laurent and Scout Commissioner, Bryce Thomas. Field Executive C. R. Danicison will give a short talk.

The Public is invited to the meeting. The Parents are especially urged to attend.

KEYNOTE LIKELY TO BE SOUNDED TUESDAY NIGHT

into this sweltering city with its air of battle and carnival.

After Senator Reed of Missouri had sounded the first note Saturday of what many interpreted as a preparation from defeat—his "if-we-lose" statement—he issued a statement Sunday manifestly aimed at wooing the dries to his pennant.

"In my opinion," he said, "the 18th amendment will stand until and unless the moral forces of the nation become convinced that there is some better way to deal with the liquor problem. If I am elected president I will keep the oath of office and fairly and impartially seek to enforce the laws of the land and defend the constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic."

The strategy of the anti-Smith forces appeared to be directed largely at putting a prohibition plank in the platform that Smith could not accept, rather than at any effort to crystallize anti-Smith opinion into a movement favoring any particular candidate.

The late night hours found two significant developments. First, it became known that Gov. Dan Moody of Texas, a dry, had taken the leadership of the southern dries in the prohibition fight. He began drafting a plank specifically mentioning the 18th amendment and prepared to show it today to John W. Davis, the party's 1924 presidential candidate, for advice and guidance.

Second, that news was followed quickly by announcement of Daniel C. Roper, former lieutenant of William G. McAdoo, that the dries had agreed upon a program.

In both cases, however, it was more a matter of platform than of candidate. Moody, it was recalled, is a candidate for re-election as a dry, and his prime concern is not the presidential nominee but rather that he as Texas delegation chairman and platform committee member shall keep pace with the dry stand of his own state. A similar situation exists in other southern states.

The selection of platform committee chairman is impending. John W. Davis is mentioned as a possibility, though Senator Key Pittman, who has been even more mentioned the past few days still has many supporters.

Notes Are Recounted

Houston, Tex., June 25.—(U.P.)—The desperately struggling anti-Smith leaders in the Democratic national convention conducted a new count of noses today, 24 hours before the gavel falls and then gave up all hope of stopping the New York governor.

A number of conferences was followed by a morning of figuring, and in no direction could the bitter-enders find any hope of holding off Governor Smith's nomination beyond the third ballot. He may even go over on the first ballot, although his managers do not claim it nor particularly desire it.

The cold figures, checked and re-checked by the weary and dejected opponents of Smith, showed that unless the day of political miracles is past, Governor Smith will have a minimum of 750 votes on the second ballot. His possible maximum is considerably greater because in that figure of 750 there Smith had been accorded only 42 votes from the so-called solid south, the Arkansas and Louisiana delegations and four from North Carolina.

Tentative Prohibition Plank

Houston, Tex., June 25.—(U.P.)—The Al Smith forces have agreed upon a tentative prohibition plank which seeks to harmonize the differences between the militant dries and wets, it was learned today.

The gist of the plank follows: Denounces the Republican party for failure to enforce properly the eighteenth amendment.

Plans the Republican for a virtual reign of terrorism in enforcement methods.

Pledges the Democratic party and its nominees to enforce rigidly all provisions of the constitution.

In this outline of the plank to mention is made specifically of enforcement of the eighteenth amendment. The Smith leaders argue that it is not at all necessary as naturally any presidential nominee would pledge himself to enforce all laws on the statute books even should be favor modification or repeal of some particular provision.

SENATOR GOODING OF IDAHO, IS DEAD

Gooding, Idaho, June 25.—(U.P.)—Frank R. Gooding, United States Senator from Idaho, died here yesterday. He suffered a relapse from a stomach ailment and succumbed a few hours later.

Mrs. Gooding, two daughters and a son survive. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. Gooding for 20 years was prominent in mining, livestock and farming industries of the state. He served as Governor from 1905 to 1907 and was in his second term as United States Senator at the time of his death.

One of the most important pieces of legislation he sponsored recently was the Gooding Long and Short Haul bill.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON IS ACCLAIMED AT HOUSTON

New York. Accepting those reports, many regarded her plea for harmony as significant, since that has been the keynote of the Smith managers here. They regard the New York governor's nomination as certain, but they want everybody to be in a good humor over it when the melee is over, and not go home nursing their separate little grudges as after the Madison Square Garden convention.

Mrs. Wilson is generally recognized as a capable woman, and is credited with having been an able assistant to Wilson during his illness in his last days in the white house. She helped advise him on the peculiar and heavy problems of those days and knew much of the inside of politics.

She is not the type of woman to take an active part in politics, but some of the most effective political work of women has been by quiet influence in the higher political circles.

Mrs. Wilson looks well. She appeared dumbfounded at first when she stepped off the train here yesterday into a milling crowd which gaped at her, then she laughed outright, a warm, mellow laugh that won the crowd.

When she was introduced at the convention hall by Jesse Jones, the crowd, which packed into every part of the rammoth hall, rose as one person and shouted long and hearty. She received the ovation with a gracious smile, and then made her little speech.

Mrs. Wilson will live while here with the Joneses in their luxurious bungalow apartment on top of Jones' new hotel here. She will attend the convention sessions every day, sitting in the section back of the platform reserved for honored guests.
