REV. SEIMETZ IS WELCOMED HOME

be able to take up his work again as spiritual head of the finest congregation in the country. He thanked members of the congregation and his friends for the words of cheer, the kind remembrances and tokens of friendships extended to him during his leave of absence. Father Seimetz was greeted with the sincere feelings of welcome of those present, all of whom were happy and grateful for their beloved pastor's return.
Martin Mylott expressed the congregation's pleasure on his return and wished for him many years of good health and the desire that God in His infinite goodness would spare their pastor for many years.
Every society within the church was represented at the reception and participated in the program, either by making a talk or in the musical program.

The reception closed with the audience singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Refreshments of punch and waters were served following the program and most persons joined in personally greeting and shaking the hand of Father Seimetz.

Barn, Filled With Hay, Is Destroyed By Fire

The barn on the Wm. W. Shafer farm, known as the Bittner homestead, was burned to the ground early Wednesday morning, July 4. The fire started about 5 o'clock and is believed to have been struck by lightning. The barn was one used for storing hay, and about five carloads of baled hay and a quantity of straw, and about five and a quantity of straw, was destroyed. No one resides on the farm at present, and the fire was under great headway when discovered by Mr. Schafer and other neighbors. A tool shed and hog shed, which stood near by, were saved. The hay had been stored in the barn for a period of four or five years.

COURT HOUSE

Burdg Will Probated

The last will and testament of Katherine Burdg has been probated in circuit court. The will, which was written November 28, 1927, bequeaths the entire estate to a daughter, Daisy Burdg Helm, and a granddaughter, Marcia C. Yahne. Mrs. Yahne was appointed executrix and she filed bond in the sum of $3,000.

Celina Boosters To Visit Decatur July 11

Four Celina Ohio citizens were in Decatur this morning, making arrangements for the "Celina on the Lake" parade to visit Decatur on Wednesday, July 11. The Celina boosters have been visiting many cities and towns recently, getting acquainted and extending special invitations to strangers to visit Celina, and the big reservoir, which is becoming a widely known summer resort. The boosters will arrive in Decatur about 9 o'clock next Wednesday morning, bringing with them one of Celina's most beautiful bathing beauties, a band and a long line of automobiles. The Celina men who were here this morning were H. W. Schindler, Fred Barr, R. R. Wycoff and H. E. Haley.

Two Houses At Auction

FRIDAY EVENING
JULY 6, at 6 P.M.

BELMONT PARK,
three squares east of Post Office on Monroe Street

These houses are in good repair, one seven and one eight room house, semi-modern, water, lights, connections for bath, beautiful lots, garages, all city conveniences, only a few minutes walk from the Court House, yet outside of the city limits, with the low tax and insurance rates; will be sold on very easy terms, small cash payment, balance same as rent. A wonderful opportunity to own a home of your own. Why pay rent and have nothing left at the end of the year, but a notice to move and a bunch of worthless rent receipts? Why not let your rent money pay for a house?

These houses will positively sell to the highest bidder regardless of price. An ideal place to live, a good investment. Immediate possession.

For further information see Jim Ross, Owner.
Roy S. Johnson, Auctioneer. Phone 606.

NOTED FINANCIER

JUMPS INTO SEA

Alfred Lowenstein Steps From Door Of Plane Over English Channel

London, July 5.—(U.P.)—Captain Alfred Lowenstein, mystery man of international high finance, brought his spectacular career to a mysterious end when he stepped last night from a door of one of his fleet of private airplanes as it sped across the English Channel, and dropped into the sea.
Today, while the Dunkirk fishing fleet dragged the French coast and the Channel for Lowenstein's company, stock exchanges throughout Europe, from London to Berlin, reacted in alarming fashion.
Not only did shares in companies owned or controlled by Lowenstein slump materially, but sympathetic pessimism caused shares in all departments to brea sharply—Particularly because of an undercurrent of rumor that the financier might have committed suicide.
Added to the mystery of how he, an experienced air passenger could walk out of the side door of a plane by mistake were the statements of Croydon airdrome officials that he was seen to examine the door before his plane left and that wind pressure made it difficult to open the door in the air.

Stocks Break Sharply

Berlin, July 5.—(U.P.)—Stocks of companies in which Captain Alfred Lowenstein was interested broke sharply on the Berlin bourse today.
Rumors that Lowenstein had committed suicide in his fall from his cross-channel airplane caused holders of shares in his companies to dump their holdings.
Sympathetic bearish tendencies marked dealings in the entire market. By noon shares on the Bourse had slumped an average of 15 points.

Heat Wave Claims Ten Lives In Chicago

Chicago, July 5.—(INS)—The heat wave which has descended upon Chicago has claimed ten lives, it was revealed by the coroner today.
Rain which fell last night served to break the torrid wave but a bright sun again today began sending the mercury mounting. The heavy rains in the last two weeks have given Chicago an excess of rainfall for the year.

Get the Habit—Trade at Home, it Pays

"Round-The-Worlders" Reach Cherbourg, France

Cherbourg, France, July 5.—(INS)—John Henry Mears and Captain Collyer, who set out from New York to make a round the world trip by steamship and airplane within 23 days, arrived on board the liner Olympic at 11:30 A. M. today. Their plane was immediately taken to the Querville air field where they hopped off for Paris at 2 p.m. The "round-the-worlders" were accompanied by their mascot—a white Fox Terrier named "Tailwind."
"So long as Tailwind is with us I know we will make every thing on schedule time," said Mears before leaving. "We are carrying a letter from Mayor Walker, of New York to the Prefect of the Seine department in Paris, after a brief stay in Paris we will leave for Berlin and Warsaw."

800 Marines Sail For Nicaragua Today

San Pedro, Cal., July 5.—(U.P.)—Eight hundred marines under the command of Lieut. Col. Gerard M. Kincaid, will sail aboard the repair ship Medina today.
The Marines have been with the battle fleet here and will join the campaigning force against General Anastasio Sandoval.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Linn and daughter Marjorie Kay, visited in Fort Wayne, Wednesday.

"Was your garden a success this year?"
"I should say so. My neighbor's chickens took first prize at the poultry show."

Most of what we know about this business we have learned from somebody else.

About the only thing that frightens a horse today is another horse.

If there is a better washing machine on the market than the Maytag, we don't know the name of it.

"Ow! Ow! There's too much mustard in this sandwich!"
"No, there isn't, dad. That's the one the wasp was on."

You do not have to be a skilled painter to get good results with Rogers Brushing Lacquer. It flows on so evenly that no brush marks are left and it is dry in half an hour.

Old Fashioned Relative: "Have you a bit of your grandmother's lace to wear with your wedding gown, my dear?"
The Bride: "No, but I'm carrying her cigarette case."

Harvest is here and you are again thinking of binder twine. As in years gone by, we are again recommending only Deering Standard Twine for your binder.

Deering Standard is a long fibre, evenly drawn twine and will work splendidly in your binder. This year we are co-operating with The Farm Bureau of Adams County and are quoting Deering Standard—The Highest Grade Twine—at $5.75 cash or $6.00 September 1st, per sack. Everybody knows Deering Standard. Buy it. Why take a chance.

A first class aviator must know his business from the ground up.

Ten Years Ago Today Mrs. Geo. Braun purchased a Malleable Range.

Crist Bocknecht purchased 40 rods regular fence, wire and staples.

Chas. Weitz, Celina, Ohio, Route 1, purchased 150 ft. 8 in belt, one 24x34, 10 oz. cover.

Frank Yager purchased a 7 tooth cultivator.

C. C. Wittwer, Berne, Ind., purchased 4 buggy rubber tires.

Wm. Meyers purchased 3 slings and one

If you need a set binder for your wheat and oats harvest, just think of the new McCormick-Deering Binder. It is the last word in a real up to the minute harvester, and remember International repair service is right at your door. Consider this service before you buy any other make.

Are you saving your U. S. Trading Stamps? We give them.

Few things are impossible to industry and skill.
