The twenty-third annual national convention of the Delta Theta Tau

County Fair Grounds To Become Golf Course

Rushville, Ind., July 5.—(UPI)—The Rush county board of commissioners have agreed to having the old fair grounds here converted into a golf course.

The new course, which will take in 25 acres, formerly used as the Rush county fair grounds, is about one and one half miles from the city and promoters believe, will afford a place for local enthusiasts to play their golf instead of having to go to other nearby towns where they have golf courses.

Oliver Cartmel, Halbert Brown, Virgil Moffett and Robert L. Newkirk, local business men are the promoters of the golf course, and have been working to gain membership to the club. Charter members are being charged $5 in order to obtain finances for the erection of a clubhouse and the working of the ground.

The course has eight holes, the fourth at Rome City.

Mrs. A. L. Glanz and son Robert, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, has arrived in this city for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Glen Neptune, North Fifth street. Mrs. Glanz is a sister of Mrs. Neptune.

Miss Helen Gass, of this city, and Messrs. George Andrews and Edward Miller, of Fort Wayne, motored to Lake James yesterday, and visited with Miss Helen Blakey at the Blakey summer home.

Miss Helen Dorwin left Wednesday for Bay City, Michigan, where she will join a group of her schoolmates from DePauw University, and spend the summer months working in one of the leading hotels at Bay City.

Mr. O. L. Vance attended a meeting of the United Clothing Buyers Association, which was held in Fort Wayne, today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dugan and daughter Miss Helen, have returned home from a trip through the eastern states and Canada.

Julius Fried, of Cleveland, Ohio, was a Thursday business visitor in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kortenber of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Latario and sons James and John, of Fort Wayne, comprised a party who spent the Fourth of July at Tri Lakes.
