Negligee Styles Chic For Summer

Negligees are by no means a negligible factor in the smart woman's wardrobe these days. For however full her engagement book may be, she knows that repose is quite as necessary to her beauty as her chic gown and thus sets an hour or two aside each day for "farniente." And this hour or two naturally call for appropriate wear.

Real French negligees come with the finest handiwork, delicate embroidery, drawwork and real lace in most exquisite colorings, the sort of garments that can bring a thrill to the most practical and unromantic of her sex. There are blushing-pink garments and mauve ones, deep jacquard-lined with cyclamen and pale powder-blue over rose du Barry. Some are in georgette or chiffon, others in crepe satin or taffeta with hand-quilted borders.

One of the Paris couturiers is showing some delightful tea-gowns with three-quarter coats in peking-velvet, a fabric with velvet designs woven in a georgette foundation with full-length pleated slips of crepe de Chine. Soft honey-beiges, light greens, orange and green-blue are the most popular shades.

There are also lovely tea-gowns with satin slips over which are worn long coats of georgette with flowing sleeves. One is brocaded lame with natter-blue georgette sleeves edged with silver lace. Another in rose-colored brocaded velvet has a deep band of shaded red marabout around the bottom and at the neck and wrists.

QUIET CEREMONY UNITES POPULAR COUPLE

In a quiet but charming ceremony solemnized at four o'clock this afternoon, Friday, July 20, 1928, Miss Angie S. Ficks became the bride of Mr. Harold Byford Macy. The ceremony was read at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Schlickman, 311 North First street, by the Rev. A. R. Fledderjohann pastor of the Zion Reformed Church.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Veronica Anker sang softly, "Because" and "I Promise Me", with Miss Helen Haubold accompanying at the piano. As Miss Haubold caught up the strains of "I Love You Truly", the bride and groom took their position before an improvised altar of lattice work, decorated with flowers and ferns. Rev. Fledderjohann read the impressive double ring ceremony, uniting the popular young couple in the holy bonds of matrimony. During the reading of the ceremony, Miss Haubold played "To a Wild Rose". Both the bride and groom were unattended.

The bride was most petite in a dress of shell pink georgette, fashioned with sleeveless basque waist and full petal skirt with uneven hem line. A collar of the georgette with picoted edge, fell over the right shoulder. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and swansonia, and wore a lovely crystal necklace, a gift of the groom. Her foot-wear was of white kid, with hose to match her costume.

Mrs. Macy is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Schlickman of this city, and with the exception of a short residence in Denver, Colorado, has spent practically her entire life in this city. She was graduated from the Decatur high school and has been employed for several years as a secretary to Mr. M. F. Worthman, superintendent of the public school of instruction. She is a popular member of the Tri Kappa Sorority, a member of the Music Department of the Woman's Club and of other social organizations. During the last three weeks she has been honored with several lovely parties and showers.

Mr. Macy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Macy, of 711 Winchester street and is a popular young business man, being proprietor of the Fisk tire store and service station at the corner of Second and Jefferson streets. He is also a graduate of the Decatur high school, the present marriage being the culmination of a romance which dates back to high school days.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Schlickman home, during which refreshments of ice-cream, angel food cake and lemonade were served by Misses Louise Haubold and Kathryn Hower. The wedding and reception guest list comprised Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Macy and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Schlickman, Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Fledderjohann, Rev. and Mrs. Virginia and Letha, Miss Veronica Anker and Miss Helen Haubold.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Macy left on a two weeks wedding trip. They will spend a couple of days in Chicago, and go thence to Oden Michigan, where they will enjoy a several days outing, going from there to various points in northern Michigan.

For going away, Mrs. Macy wore a two-piece costume of blue crepe with tan trim, with hat, shoes and accessories of tan.

After September first Mr. and Mrs. Macy will be at home at 414 North Second street, this city.

Dixon received the consolation prize.

The tables were then cleared, and set with silver service for the luncheon which followed. A basket of sweet peas centered each table. Combination nut cups and place cards marked the covers of the guests, who were served with a most delicious two-course luncheon. During the course of the luncheon, Miss Esther Biggs received the undivided attention of the entire assembly, when she announced the finding of a secret message attached to her nut cup which read "Bessie and Leo, July 26." This message bore tidings to the friends of Miss Martz, that on July 26, she would become the bride of Mr. Leo Teeple. Showers of best wishes were then in order. The guest list for the evening comprised: Misses Dorothy Johnston, Rose Steigmeyer, Helen Lengerich, Mary Jane Döör, Loraine Teeple, Lela Yost, Esther Biggs, Kathryn Dixon, and Mesdames Henry Wynman, Glen Barkley, Bernard Kintz, David Teeple, Louise Braden and Katherine Kite.

DURBIN REUNION TO BE HELD SOON

Plans are being completed for the sixth annual reunion of the Durbin family, which will be held Sunday, August 12, at Bellmont Park, Decatur. All members of the family are requested to make plans to attend on that date and to bring with them, well filled baskets for a picnic dinner. A program will be given during the afternoon hours.

INFORMAL SUMMER DANCE OF NOTRE DAME CLUB

One of the outstanding social events of the season is the informal summer dance to be given by the Fort Wayne Notre Dame club, at the Decatur Country club, on Tuesday evening, July 31. This is the second summer dance given by the club, the first having been held at the Elk's Country Club in Fort Wayne, in June. Robert Voglewede is the general chairman of the dance and he is to be assisted by Hugh Holthouse, Gerald Kohne, Fred Connell, Arthur Voglewede and Harold Niblick as chairmen of the various committees. With the aid of the other club members, these men expect to make a real success of the dance. Owing to the fact that the club wishes to avoid a crowded floor, the sale of tickets has been limited.

At present there are about forty members of the Fort Wayne Club, all of whom will be in attendance together with Notre Dame men from Huntington, Columbia City, Delphos, Hartford City, Celina, Rome City and South Bend.

The music will be furnished by Jack Ferris and his Orioles, a seven-piece band. This orchestra comes highly recommended, and has played for Notre Dame dances in the past. Bids on the church lawn. A pot-luck supper will be served and every member is requested to bring one half dozen sandwiches, one other dish of food and their own table service. This is the time for the election of officers and it is planned to hold the election in connection with the social function. All members of the Senior League are requested to be present.
