CAST FOR PLAY IS ANNOUNCED

9—"Lantern of Love"—Chorus
Musical director True Fristoe.
Dances originated and taught by Margaret Niblick.

Chorus
Winifred Arnold, Cecilia Appleman, Agnes Baker, Teresa Baker, Mary Colchin, Mary Green, Virginia Hyland, Dolores Klepper, Mary Helen Lose, Florence Lengerich, Mary Meyers, Dolores Omor, Helen Schmitz, Viola Schmitz, Salome Schmitz, Catherine Schumacker, Henrietta Spangler, Helen Tricker, Patricia Toepke (Agnes Wolpert, Flotilda Harris (Margaret Vian, Margaret Eiting.

It may seem strange that the director of the play would have two people playing the same role. But whenever possible, it is found to be a plan with many facilities.

In the present instance, the director could not choose between them, hence decided to have both characters play at separate times. Dorothy Alberding will play the role of Zita at the Sunday performances and "Katie" Omor will take the part Wednesday.

Mrs. Bormann will take the role of Mrs. Lathan on Sunday and Gertrude Holthouse will play the part at the Wednesday performance.

FIRE MARSHAL, CITY AND OTHERS SUE FOR $15,000

Claims He Had No Notice

Mr. Opfinger avers that he had no proper, true, just and legal notice for the tearing down or removal of said building. He states in his complaint that on July 13, the fire chief handed him a statement "falsely describing and misrepresenting certain property as to its age, condition and otherwise, directed the same to a person by the name of 'Opfinger,' as the owner of said described property, using a 'bogus,' provoking and insinuating name 'Opfinger' or name of another person, unknown, requesting that a certain two-story building as described in said statement be removed."

In addition to seeking judgment for $10,000, Mr. Opfinger asks that a temporary order of injunction restraining or enjoining the defendants, their agents, servants or employees from causing further waste and injury to said described property or removing or confiscating said building or building materials located on the premises, in any manner. Mr. Opfinger, who is a member of the Adams county bar, filed the complaint as his own legal counsel.

HUNT FOR ALFEE IN LOUISVILLE, KY.

Louisville, Ky., August 1.—(U.P.)—Search for Mickey Alfee, 28, of Muskegon, Michigan, alleged suspected slayer of Mrs. Pearl Ballard, 31, whose battered body was found near Rome, Indiana, on July 17, was continued by police here today, in the belief that Italian friends of the fugitive were hiding him.

The search for Alfee switched to this city when Mrs. Ballard's sedan was found here.

Police also were working on the theory that Alfee may be in Chicago, having gone there in a roadster which disappeared about the time the Ballard car was found abandoned.

Mrs. Ballard's machine was found on July 18, on the Bardstown road, in a ditch. It carried no license numbers. An Illinois license plate apparently stolen, was found under the rear seat.

The engine number had been chiseled off the motor, police said, but detectives got in touch with the Buick factory and identified the machine through a secret system used by the factory.

The sedan is being held here for Gust Ballard, of Muskegon.

Teacher: "What is the most difficult thing to learn about farming?"
Student: "To get up at 5 a. m."

We once knew of a little town where everybody was a booster. It is not a little town any longer but a big city and it is pretty generally conceded that boosting helped to make it big. Let's try that recipe on Decatur for a few years.

You can be successful in boosting your own town, but don't shove it.

One of the smallest items in the cost of building is the hardware, but it is one of the most important. Cheap looking hardware spoils the attractiveness of an expensive house.

Grandmother: "Johnny, I wouldn't slide down those stairs."
Johnny: "Wouldn't? Heck, you couldn't."

The fruit season is nearly here. Better look over your supply of tinware, funnels, pans, etc. We have it, so I took it across, everything that
