LARGEST SHIPS OF AIR NEARLY
FIT FOR TESTS

London, Aug.—(UPI)—The two largest airships in the world are nearing completion in England. At Howden, Yorkshire, the R-100 has progressed far enough for parliamentarians and visiting dignitaries to make inspections and take tea on her spacious promenade deck. Test flights are scheduled this month. The R-101, a similar type of ship, is rapidly being completed at Cardington, Bedfordshire.

The ships are $5,000,000 cubic feet capacity. They will accommodate 100 passengers and a crew of 40. Those who journey in the air liners will have all the conveniences of modern travel. In order that they may get a good view of the territory over which the ships pass, the promenades will be enclosed with transparent material.

Two-berth cabins, a large lounge and dining room, an electric kitchen, a bar, in fact everything except a swimming pool will be provided for air travel. The lounge will measure 33 by 64 feet and the dining room will accommodate 50 passengers. The lounge may be used for dancing.

Not For Atlantic

Lieut. Col. V. C. Richmond, chief of the designing department at Cardington, has said that both ships are planned for the Indian, South African, and Australian routes, and not for the Atlantic crossing. The ships could easily make the non-stop flight of 3,500 to 4,000 miles across the Atlantic," he explained, "but they could not carry a sufficient paying load. They will probably go on the Indian route first, where stopping places will be about 2,500 miles apart."

Lieut. Col. Richmond outlined some of the new features of the R-101 as follows:

Heavy oil will be used for fuel instead of petrol, which has been blamed for all airship fires.

The length of the ship is only five and one half times the girth, as against the former ratio of eight or ten to one. This will greatly reduce air resistance.

The ship's metal parts are bolted together instead of being riveted, giving increased strength and making replacement of parts easier.

Pay Day in 1800

The sailors of the U. S. Navy during the 1800 century, received pay that appears ridiculously small compared with that of today. Captains receiving but $100; Lieutenants pay was $60 per month and midshipmen drew $19. Seaman received the biggest sum of $10 now their pay is $54 per month and the Midshipmen receive $75.

RHEUMATISM AND STOMACH MISERY
ENDED, SHE SAYS

"Konjola Relieved That Awful Grinding Pain In My Stomach," States This Lady

MRS. ROSE MILLER "Konjola ended the rheumatism and stomach misery I had been suffering for eight years, and I am glad to endorse such a medicine," said Mrs. Rose Miller, 1101 North Adams street, South Bend, Ind.

"There was always constant grinding pains in my stomach after meals. Gas formations would bloat me up and cause my heart to burn and palpitate wildly. Sometimes I thought I would stop breathing. Besides being in misery all the time with my stomach, I suffered dreadful rheumatic pains in my arms and legs. I was so sore and stiff, I couldn't move without being in pain.

"Three bottles of Konjola relieved that awful grinding pain in my stomach and ended all the other misery I had been suffering for years. It also ended every rheumatic ache and pain in my body and strengthened my nerves so that I enjoy better sleep at night than I have for a long time. No medicine has ever done me as much good as Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Decatur, Ind., at Smith, Yeager and Falk drug store and by all the best drugists in all towns throughout this entire section.
