Emerald Popular As Summer Jewel

The emerald has once more come into its own, judging from an exposition of the precious green stone now going on in Paris. It is set in all manner of ways, in brooches, necklaces, pendants, rings, watches, cuff-links etc., every piece an individual art creation with no hint of modern standardization. It is considered the stone par excellence to be combined with diamonds, according to the Parisian jewellers who prophesy great popularity for it this coming winter. In the very center of this modern collection is the famous emerald given by Napoleon to Josephine de Beauharnais in 1809, a magnificent stone of great purity.

Contrasts in the different lustres of metals are used with clever effect in the latest modernistic bracelets and necklaces. Platinum, silver, white gold, old gold and bright are used in side and forming a heavy flat cord. Various shaped plaques set side by side are used in the latest designs. Sports jewelry is new and smart and is largely being furnished by the dressmakers who furnish the sports clothes to wear with it. Lucien Leclercq shows a charming necklace and bracelet of flat rings in gold colored metal.

Flat enamel cuff-links for wear with the tailored chemise blouse come in all colors and interesting designs. There are some in opaque crystal with a tiny rhinestone in the center which are very smart for the georgette blouse if it has cuffs.

The new shoe buckles include very attractive designs in crystal combined with rhinestones. One shop is showing them in square shape, very clear and white. Little curving bands of rhinestones in tiny floral designs which fit around the edged of the satin slipper are also very smart.

The Phoebe Bible class of the Zion Reformed Sunday school will meet at the home of Mrs. Tillman Gerber, at 7:30 o'clock this evening. A good attendance of members is desired.

The Ben Hurs will hold installation of officers, Friday night, at eight o'clock at the Yoeman Hall. Immediately after the installation, the Tirzah Club will be entertained by Mrs. Emma Burk. All officers and members are requested to be present.

MEETING OF W. M. S. OF ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Zion Lutheran church met Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Ed Boknecht, on North Fifth street. The afternoon was spent in sewing. During a business session, plans were made to hold a bazaar some time this fall.

At the close of the afternoon, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Floyd Bowman, and Mrs. Frank Braun, served lovely refreshments. Plans were also made for conducting a stand during the Old Home Week celebration.

SECOND REUNION OF HEDINGTON FAMILY
The second annual reunion of the Hedington family was held Sunday, Aug. 5, at the country home of George M. Hedington, northeast of Berne, with a large number of relatives and friends attending. All came with well filled baskets and a bounteous dinner was enjoyed by all at the noon hour. Due to the steady rain during the forenoon, it was necessary to serve the dinner cafeteria style in the dining room instead of out on the large shady lawn. It was a very pleasant event as some members of the family had not met in reunion for a number of years. Piano music was enjoyed during the afternoon and a very appropriate reading was given by L. H.

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY SWIMMING PARTY

Thirty young girls, members of the Girl Scouts, together with their Scout Leader, Mrs. Bryce Thomas, enjoyed a delightful swimming party from 4:30 to 5:30 Wednesday afternoon, at Rugg Park. Following the swim, a picnic supper was partaken of in the park, after which a short business session was held. Plans for securing Girl Scout uniforms before Old Home Week, was talked over by the Scouts, but no definite action taken because of the expense involved. The entire affair proved most delightful to all who attended.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR RECENT BRIDE

Misses Fern Passwater, Berneta Tanvis, and Alta Smith, were hostesses, Tuesday evening, at the home of the former, at a miscellaneous shower, complimentary to Mrs. Robert Miller, who until recently was Miss Margaret Meyers. The guests gathered at eight o'clock and Bunco furnished diversion for the early evening hours. Prizes were won by Mrs. Robert Helm, Miss Mary Jane Devor and Miss Mirmiam Meyers. These were in turn presented to the honor guest. Following the games the hostesses served a most delicious two-course luncheon, the appointments of which were carried out in pink and white, the predominating colors of the evening's color scheme. Roses in flower pots of ice cream were presented as favors with the last course. The Passwater home was decorated in crepe paper streamers of pink and white, and huge baskets of gladiolas of pink hues graced the entertaining rooms. Each guest was then presented a card containing a verse which they were requested to read in turn. As the verse was read, the attention was called to a dainty parasol, covered with rose petals, which was suspended in the center of the living room. Hanging from the parasol were ribbons with tiny pink hearts tied on the end. These were numbered and by pulling the heart and ribbon corresponding with the number of verse read, Mrs. Miller found herself in possession of directions for finding a gift, which was hidden in the home. The same medium led to the finding of many lovely presents and useful household decorations. The gift of the hostesses was a lovely end table. The guest list of the evening included Luella West, Anna West, Lela Merriam, Kathryn Hyland, Mrs. Robert Helm, Selma Smith, Mirmiam Meyers, Thelma Osborn, Iva Heller, Inez Heller, Sadie Fisher, Leota Burnett, Nora Dudgeon, Mary Jane Devor, Ruth Sumner, Hazel Ehrsam, Florence Kuhn, Alma Andrews, Martha Fisher, Esther DeWalt, Frances Loshe, Mary Hill, Gladys Reffey, Dora Miller, Mrs. Sloan Meyers, Mrs. Delton Passwater, Betty Smith and the guest of honor, Mrs. Robert Miller.

Enjoy ESSEX Super performance

and save enough to pay for a vacation

The same public discernment which made Essex the world's largest selling "Six," gives picture-like vividness to this car's enormous excess of value.

It is impressive to know that point for point the Essex Super-Six equals or excels any car up to $300 or $400 greater cost. But cold figures can't express the drama of this Chicago school teacher who writes:

"I looked at several costlier cars first, but I liked the Essex much better in every way, and I saved enough to pay almost all expenses of my European trip."

Or this Ohio business man: "My Essex gives me every fine car quality and performance ability which our former costlier car gave, and we saved enough to pay for the whole family's touring vacation."
