HARRY STRAUB KILLED BY TRAIN

Straub appeared on the tracks too suddenly for the train to be stopped, the crew stated.

Mr. Straub was born in Decatur and spent his entire life here. He and his daughter, Viola, age 12 years, have been living together in this city, since Mr. Straub's wife died a year ago.

Surviving are two brothers, Frank Straub, of Decatur, and Charles (Simmie) Straub, of Fort Wayne, and one sister, Mrs. Lou Sampson, of this city.

The body will be brought here this evening by S. E. Black, local undertaker, and may be viewed at the Black funeral chapel after 7 o'clock this evening and up until the funeral hour Tuesday afternoon. The funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock at the Black funeral chapel and burial will be made in the Reynolds cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Beavers and son Lawrence Edward and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Perry motored to Celina and St. Mary, Ohio, Sunday and spent the day.

porting her, will be a group of thirty or more Indians, exemplifying the various Indian dances and customs. This part of the program will be taken over by the local Red Men and Pocahontas, appearing in attractive Indian costume.

Limberlost To Be Portrayed

The second episode will be the "Spirit of the Limberlost," which will be portrayed by Mrs. J. H. Heller. The Spirit of the Limberlost appears in the opening of the episode and summons her Wild Flowers, including the Daisies, Wild Roses, the Butterflies, Poppies, Dryads, Grasshoppers and Bluebirds. When these have assembled, the stately trees enter, followed by the Tree Nymphs, and lastly the dainty Mist Maidens. When the Limberlost is complete with all these flowers and birds which Gene Stratton-Porter loved and wrote about, the Pioneers and their children enter. The children engage in playing and tramp down the pretty flowers, they chase the butterflies and frighten the birds. The pioneer fathers fell the trees and the Tree Tympans and Grasshoppers all take their leave from the forest.

The third episode, known as "The Spirit of Patriotism" portrays the progress made by the early pioneers, and shows how, with the assistance of the Spirit of State, the Town Spirit, Rural, School and Church interests, they built up a lovely town, Decatur. Incorporated in all they use to make Decatur what it is today, will be the G. A. R., The Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, W. C. T. U., City Dads, and other organizations. Mrs. Earl Coverdale will represent the "Spirit of Patriotism" of Episode III.

This is the important week for group rehearsals and it is requested that all groups be present and prompt at all rehearsals.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crist, who for the last six weeks have resided in Battle Creek, Mich., have returned to this city where Mr. Crist has accepted a position as mechanic at the Riverside garage. Mr. and Mrs. Crist retained their home at 107 North Fifth street, during their absence and have resumed occupancy of same.

Comments Made On "LIMBERLOST DAY" By Noted Persons

Secretary Old Home Week in Decatur, Decatur, Indiana.

My Dear Mr. Quinn:

I am highly gratified to learn of the program prepared for "Limberlost Day" for the school children of Adams County on the eleventh of September. I wish to congratulate you and the committee upon this splendid venture in memory of our greatest woman writer of Indiana, Gene Stratton-Porter.

I am sure that the great memorial which you are erecting in her memory will be of very high value, not only for the people of today, but for future generations. This value is even greater on account of the method by which the memorial has been erected.

The state of Indiana owes a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Porter which can be partially paid by the inclusion of her Limberlost into the state park. I am glad to hear that plans are under way for the culmination of the idea which so long has been in the minds of our people. This is an important action which should be carried to completion.

I wish personally to thank you for your invitation to visit Decatur September eleventh. However, I am contemplating some speaking engagements which may be scheduled near that date; hence at the present time I am unable to say that I shall be present. Assuring you of my interest in this project as well as in any activities which include so many school children I am

Very truly yours,

BUTLER ATTACKS HOOVER'S STAND

New York, Aug. 20—(INS)—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University and uncompromising foe of prohibition, today declared his vigorous disapproval of Herbert Hoover's stand for enforcement, reaffirming his belief that the eighteenth amendment must be wiped out "if the constitution itself is to be preserved and protected."

Continuing the fight he began more than a year ago to win the Republican party over to the repeal movement, a fight which he carried personally and lone-handed to the floor of the Kansas City convention after encountering overwhelming defeat in the platform committee Butler declared that "Anyone who is opposed to the repeal of the eighteenth amendment must then be in favor of the only alternative, which is the continuance of the present reign of lawlessness, debauchery and government-made crime."

Coupled with his denunciation of Hoover's acceptance-speech utterances on the prohibition question, Butler, in an open letter made public at his Southampton, L. I., summer home, also expressed dissent with the Republican nominee's stand on disarmament and world peace.
