NOTICE OF PUBLIC LETTING

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Commissioners of Adams County, Indiana, will receive bids for the construction of a macadamized road in Preble township in said county, known as the Herman Bunck Macadam Road, up and until ten o'clock A. M. Wednesday September 5, 1928 at the regular meeting of said Board of Commissioners, held in the City of Decatur, Adams County, Indiana.

Said bids will be received for the construction of said road in accordance with the plans, specifications and report of the viewers and engineer, which are now on file in the Auditor's office of said county, said road to be built of crushed stone alone.

A bond must accompany each bid in twice the amount of the bid filed, conditioned on the faithful performance of said work, and that the bidder, if awarded the contract, will enter into contract therefor and complete same, according to such contract and in accordance with the bid filed.

All bids shall be made so as to give the amount for which said road will be constructed for cash, payable on estimates to be made by the engineer in charge not to exceed eighty per cent of any one estimate out of the funds to be hereinafter raised by the sale of bonds as required by law.

The Board of Commissioners reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Martin Jaberg, Auditor
Adams County, Indiana.

TO PUT PAGEANT TOGETHER SOON

In Episode 11, in dainty wild rose costume and waving a huge rose on a long stem, these girls have a pretty little dance in waltz time. This group comprises Ruth Vogelweide, Fern Zimmerman, Martha Jane Linn, Barbara Krick, Helena Rayl, Margaret McGill, Marjorie Johnson, Marjorie Carroll, and Loretta Rose Lose.

The Daisies are the second group of Episode 11, to be summoned by the Spirit of the Limberlost. In their daisy costumes and with a daisy chain in their hands, they exemplify an attractive dance and then take their places in the wilderness to populate the "Limberlost". The "Daisies" include: Kathryn Hower, Patsy Fullenkamp, Eileen Burk, Salome Schmitt, Mary Kathryn Tyndall, Mary Jane Schaffer, Margaret Campbell, Edwina Shroll, and Virginia Rose Christen.

Many other groups go to make up this spectacular performance, all of which are progressing, nicely in rehearsal work.

Other features of the pageant are being worked out individually on the side, and it is hoped that all will be in readiness for putting various parts of it together next week.

street has been widened to conform to a city street. The entire road is built of concrete.

The Monroe street improvement is finished and was opened to traffic a few days ago. The improvement extends west from Thirteenth street to the Erie crossing, west of the corporate limits. The road is built of brick with curb along the improvement.

These two roads and the Country Club road, extending south from Mercer avenue past the Decatur Country Club grounds, form main entrances to the city. The roads were built by Washington township under the three-mile road law.

merman was murdered by the robbers and his body placed in the barn and then the barn set afire.

Charred Body Found

Freemont, Ind., Aug. 23.—(U.P.)—A man's charred body, a burned barn and an automobile left in the garage of the Steuben county sheriff are the "props" for a tragedy authorities are trying to reconstruct.

The barn burned on the farm of Mrs. Joanna Bricker, four miles west of here, early Wednesday. Wilson Dugid, Don Stoy and Irvin Bricker found a man's skull and a few other bones when they searched the ruins a few hours after the flames died down.

Except for the letter "B" found on a scrap of the dead man's underwear, there was no other mark that might be an aid to establishing his identity. The body is so badly burned that Coroner F. B. Humphries said an autopsy would be impossible.

The mystery auto carried license plates issued to E. S. Bliss, hotel Roberts, Muncie. But police of that city said they could find no trace of a man of that name. In the car was a set of Michigan license plates and a card showing they had been issued to Thomas P. Williams, Detroit. Steuben county authorities were investigating in Detroit today.

Berne Schools To Open

Tuesday, September 4

Berne, Aug. 23.—(Special)—The Berne schools will open on Tuesday, September 4, instead of Monday, September 3, which is Labor Day, according to a decision made by the school board. Many families had planned to take vacation trips over Labor Day and had asked that their children be excused from school on Monday. All pupils in the grades and the first year of high school will be required to meet on Tuesday, September 4, while the second, third and fourth year classes in the high school will not meet until Wednesday, September 5.

as a poor operator and this might account for the discrepancy.

The signals received were a series of five "R's", immediately followed by a series of five "D's." These were repeated until ten sets of them had been sent and then came two "A's" in rapid succession.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Open Convention

Indianapolis, Ind., August 23.—(INS)—Flags and gaily colored bunting were Springing up all over downtown Indianapolis today as the city began dressing up in preparation for the 29th annual national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars which will bring more than 20,000 ex-soldiers here. The encampment opens Sunday, but already many delegates are arriving on every train and by automobile.

Four Persons Seriously Hurt In Traction Wreck

Fairland, Ind., August 23.—(INS)—Four of twenty-three persons injured in a collision of Indianapolis and Southeastern traction cars here Wednesday were in a serious condition today.

Among the seriously injured are Irvin, Neal, Indianapolis, Conductor of the eastbound car in the crash; Thomas Slater, Chicago, and Earl Talbott, Shelbyville.
