DECATUR BOY MARRIED AT CRAWFORDSVILLE

A wedding of charming simplicity was solemnized Thursday morning August 30, 1928, at ten-thirty o'clock, at the home of the Rev. E. A. Arthur, pastor of the Memorial Presbyterian church in Crawfordsville, when Miss Margaret M. Buskirk became the bride of Clyde A. Myers, of this city. Miss Buskirk is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Buskirk, of Crawfordsville, and Mr. Myers is a son of Mrs. Louisa J. Myers of this city. The single ring ceremony was read in the presence of the immediate family and a few friends of the young couple.

The bride was lovely in a gown of dark blue georgette trimmed in transparent velvet and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and baby breath. Mrs. Raymond J. Services, of Aurora, Indiana, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore an attractive gown of powder blue georgette crepe fashioned with Irish point lace, and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds. Raymond J. Services acted as best man.

Mrs. Myers attended the Monitor high school near Lafayette and for the past year has been a student at the Presbyterian training school at Chicago.

Clyde Myers is a graduate of Decatur high school. Following his graduation, he attended Wabash College and was a member of the 1927 graduating class of that college. He is now employed as a "Middleman" at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Chicago, and also has charge of the Presbyterian church at Whiting, Indiana.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents near Crawfordsville, after which Mr. and Mrs. Myers left on a short wedding trip. After September first, they will be at home to their friends at 2330 North Halsted street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Catholic Ladies of Columbia will meet at the Knights of Columbus hall at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

ENTERTAIN FOR BABY'S BIRTHDAY

Covers at the dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howell, of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whitright, Miss Gladys Whitright, Mr. Marion Whitright and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Howell and son, Billy of this city.

The Moose Legionnaires will hold a bake sale on Wednesday and Saturday morning of Old Home Week at the Schmitt Meat Market.

All Pocahontas who are taking part in the pageant to be given on Tuesday of Old Home Week, are requested to meet next Tuesday evening at seven o'clock in the Red Men Hall, for rehearsal.

The Dutiful Daughters class of the Evangelical Sunday school will meet at 7:30 o'clock with Miss Gladys Reefe.

There will be a called meeting of Delta Theta Tau on Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Margaret Mylott.

JANET SCHROCK CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Janet Schrock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Schrock, South Second street, was at home to a number of her little friends, Friday afternoon, from three to five o'clock, on the occasion of her eighth birthday anniversary. Games were played during the afternoon hours. In a peanut hunting contest, Martha Macy was the victor and was awarded with a pretty prize, while Mary Catherine Tyndall won the prize for pinning the tail on the donkey, most correctly. At 4:30 o'clock, dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Schrock. Janet was the recipient of many nice gifts from her little friends. Those enjoying the affair were: Mary Catherine and Anna Jané Tyndall, Margaret and Betty Campbell, Catherine Engler, Barbara Burk, Martha Macy of Galion, Nancy Goodrich of Indianapolis and the hostess, Janet Schrock.

Several kind friends sent beautiful bouquets of flowers to us on the occasion of our Golden Wedding anniversary, to which we found no card attached. Therefore, we take this means of thanking them for same. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Merryman.

INDIANA STATE FAIR IS OPENED

Seventy-Sixth Annual Exposition Opens Today; Exhibits Feature

Indianapolis, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Indiana's seventy-sixth annual state fair opened here today.

At 6 a. m. est., the first visitors of the week passed through the turnstiles to view Indiana's exhibits.

Prizes this year to be awarded winners in all forms of exhibitions and displays will total more than $162,000, which is said to be several thousand dollars in excess of prizes offered by any other state in the country. Today was Children's day, and all work placed on exhibit by members of the boy's club and the girl's home economic clubs, which were fostered by the county agents, were judged.

The large prize lists have attracted one of the greatest displays of livestock ever exhibited in the middle west, E. J. Barker, secretary of the fair board said, with the exception of the Chicago livestock show. Entries for the livestock show have been received from 25 states.

Misses Eloise and Juanita Noll, who have visited for the past week in Fort Wayne, returned home today.

Mrs. C. L. Walters and daughters Dorothy and Mrs. Burdette Custer, visited Friday in Defiance, Ohio, with Mrs. Charles W. Yager and daughters Mildred and Gertrude.
