U. S. GOLF STARS TROUNCE BRITAINS

By Frank Getty,
U. P. Sports Editor
Chicago, Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—The superiority of American amateur golf over the British brand has been demonstrated amply by the results of the Walker cup matches at Wheaton, where the team representing the United States won by the count of 11 to 1.

No accurate forecast of the outcome of the impending national amateur championship at Brae Burn was furnished by the contest for the international team trophy, which the Americans won for the fifth time in succession.

Bobby Jones, who will defend his title on the links at West Newton, Massachusetts, in the tournament which starts September 10, overwhelmed his opponent, T. Phillip Perkins, the British amateur champion, 13 up and 12 to play. Jones played par golf under trying conditions in the morning, and was one under Fours for the six holes necessary to complete his triumph in the afternoon.

No other golfer, American or British, played as well as Wheaton, and it is reasonable to suppose that the next amateur champion of the United States was among the sixteen who contested for the Walker cup.

WITH THE BIG LEAGUE STARS

By United Press
Rogers Hornsby .380 tripled once and scored a run in three times at bat. Paul Waner .371 hit a home run and singled, scored two runs, batted in three runs, in seven times at bat.

Al Simmons .354 singled and batted in one run in four trips. Freddy Lindstrom .344 went hitless in four times at bat.

Jim Bottomley .335 hit a home run and two doubles, scoring two runs and batting in three runs in eight times at bat.

Babe Ruth .339 Lou Gehrig .373 and Goose Goslin .381 were idle.

Newcastle Plans New Public Golf Course

Newcastle, Ind., Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—A membership campaign for the new public golf links is to be launched next week by the American Legion golf committee here.

The purpose of the membership campaign is to gain funds for construction of the course at Memorial park.

A goal of 800 memberships at $10 each has been set by the committee which if completed will total $8,000.

A presidential year in Brooklyn without a baseball club fighting for the pennant is discouraging to the chances of Uncle Wilbert Robinson again leading the Dodgers.

Steve McKeever, one of the major stockholders, has said that Robbie must go, has claimed the club needs a managerial change and has claimed that Robbie hasn't extended his full wizardry towards the 1928 club. Robbie points to his contract, which has a year yet to run, says he intends to fulfill it—and there the matter rests.

But to get back to the presidential year.

In 1906 the Robins won a pennant. From that time on the Brooklyn team was one of the big laughs of the league. Whenever they got within speaking distance of first division the Brooklyn fans got excited but speaking distance was about as close as they ever got.

Came 1914 and Robinson, once a member of the Baltimore Orioles along with John McGraw, was appointed manager.

Won in '16 and '20
Two years later—1916—was a presidential year. Robbie chose that year to become one of baseball's master minds and piloted a club that had been conceded virtually no strength, into a championship.

Then in 1920, the next presidential year, Robbie took another team that appeared slightly less than Class B on paper, and startled everyone by directing it into a championship.

Brooklyn fans were aglow. There wasn't anything Robbie couldn't have. And in 1924 they felt sure that Robbie would repeat his presidential year hoodoo on the other National league clubs and send the Dodgers through to a pennant. Robinson tried.

Rips 'Em Up

Here is Rip Collins himself, former Yankee pitcher, who recently achieved the impossible when he hurled two one-hit games for Toronto in a double-header with Reading, International League leader. With thirteen strike-outs and only three passes, he managed a 2 to 0 victory in the first game, then a 4 to 1 win, and called it a day.

This amount, the golf committee believes, will enable the immediate start of work on the new links. It was pointed out that the course would be inexpensive compared with some because artificial drainage will not be necessary and due to the natural lay of the land. The greens are blessed with natural hazards.

THE CAMPAIGN LOG

Herbert Hoover made plans to rest today. He will attend a baseball game today and expects to go fishing next week.

Governor Smith continued his rest program today and contemplates no work on his campaign until after Labor day. The governor, it was understood, plans only extemporaneous speeches hereafter.

The Prohibition party announced it would not support Herbert Hoover, but will campaign definitely for the party ticket named several weeks ago.

The corn belt committee tacitly endorsed the Democratic farm relief plank but approved no candidate for president.

Martinsville High School To Have Football Team

Martinsville, Ind., September 1.—(U.P.)—The date for opening of the football season here has been tentatively set as Sept. 20. Football is a new sport in Martinsville and much attention is being attracted to the field which is being put into condition here for the sport.

The ground which will form the local gridiron is being leveled and it is expected several tractors will put on the finishing touches.

Since no football has been played in the local school for a number of years the opening season probably will consist of only five games. Three of these games are already on the schedule. They are with Bloomington, Thornton and the Shortridge seconds.

Coach Glenn Adams has been appointed to coach the school football squad. He was to have arrived last Friday.

Much enthusiasm has been worked up over the introduction of the sport and many candidates are expected to come out when Coach Adams issues his call this fall.

Barnhart, Pirate Veteran, Goes To Indianapolis Club

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 1.—(INS)—Clyde Barnhart, veteran outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates has been released under option to the Indianapolis American Association baseball team to bolster up the Indians in their crucial battle for the pennant.

The Indians were to open a six game series with Louisville here today and Barnhart may be in the lineup.

Only two points separated the Indians this morning from the league leading Minneapolis team while Kansas City was only four points behind the Indians. Milwaukee and St. Paul also were within striking distance of the pennant.

Watching The Scoreboard

By United Press
Yesterday's hero — Paul Waner, whose home run in the fifth inning with Lloyd Waner on base, gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 6 to 5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in the first game of a double header. Ray Kremer gave the Cardinals only four hits until the eighth inning when he weakened and was replaced by Burleigh Grimes. St. Louis won the second game 6 to 2. Bottomley's home run clinching the game in the eighth inning.

Rube Walberg pitched the Philadelphia Athletics to a 3 to 2 victory over the Boston Red Sox. This victory brings the Mackmen to within two games of the League-leading New York Yankees. Although outlived, 16 to 14, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Cincinnati Reds 5 to 3, and are now only four and one-half games behind the St. Louis Cardinals. Curtis Walker, Cincinnati outfielder was knocked unconscious when English's quick throw to first in attempting a double play caught him on the forehead.

The New York Giants dropped their eighth straight game by losing to the Brooklyn Robins 4 to 2. It was Dazzy Vance's eighteenth victory of the season. The Giants runs resulted from Reese's home run with Jackson on base. Jake Flowers hit a homer for Brooklyn.

Dan Howley's St. Louis Browns returned home to defeat the Detroit Tigers 5 to 2. Earl Whitehill was banished from the game for protesting a decision at the plate.

Lott And Hennessey Defeat French Stars

Chestnut Hills, Mass., Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—Two young American tennis players, almost infants in international competition, today will play two wily Australian veterans for the American doubles title.

George Lott, Jr., and Johnny Hennessey are the young Americans who will attempt to defend the American title. Their scintillating play thus far in the tournament has given them better than an even chance against Gerald Patterson and Jack Hawes, two campaigners who have been playing doubles for years.

Lott and Hennessey defeated the No. 1 ranking foreign team yesterday when they eliminated the Frenchmen, Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon.

The victory was comparatively easy, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2, but the previous day the four had staged the most brilliant battle of the tournament, the match being called a draw by darkness after the two teams had played to two sets each and the count was four all in the fifth set.

ROBINSON LAUDS SMITH'S RECORD

Governor's Running Mate
Makes Plea For Religious Tolerance

By Ralph H. Turner
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Lanoke, Ark., Sept. 1.—(U.P.)—The question of Governor Smith's Catholicism is min its relation to his Presidential candidacy has been brought out as a subject of open campaign discussion by the Governor's running mate, Senator Joseph T. Robinson.

Robinson, speaking at the homecoming celebration held in his honor here, told his fellow townsmen that Governor Smith had been misrepresented and said his record in New York showed that "he had not been a Catholic governor, a Baptist governor nor a Methodist governor. He has been an American governor."

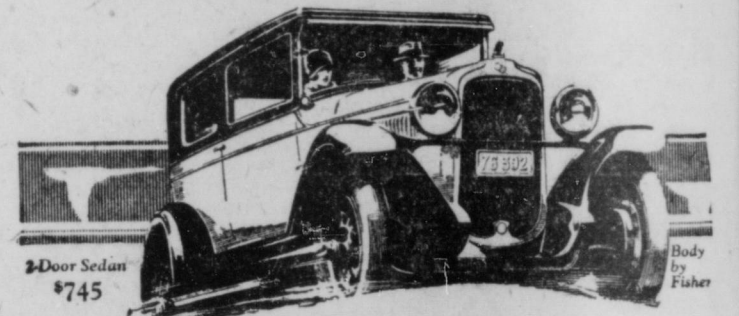

The same note was sounded by Senator George, of Georgia, who urged that religion should not be mixed with politics and that "we judge our citizens by what they are and what their record shows them to be."

It was indicated by persons in Senator Robinson's party that this meeting was a preface to other pleas for religious tolerance and for the separation of religion and politics, which will be made in the Democratic campaign especially in the south, where Robinson will speak extensively.

The Philadelphia Phillies and the Boston Braves divided a double-header. Philadelphia won the first game 4 to 3, and the Braves the nightcap 4 to 1.
