Wife's Blackened Eyes Prove Strong Evidence Against Bad Husband

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 5.—Despite blackened eyes and other bruises, Mrs. Walter Gibson unsuccessfully tried to tell the court that she had been suffering from toothache and had been bruised in a fall.

The court took another view of the case when it listened to the officers who arrested Gibson tell of finding his wife with blood streaming from her face.

Gibson was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and serve 180 days on the penal farm for wife-beating.

WISCONSIN TURNS DOWN GOVERNOR

Gov. Zimmerman Loses In Primary; Michigan Governor Is Re-nominated

By Willard R. Smith,
UP Staff Correspondent
Madison, Wis., Sept. 5.—Regular republicans apparently won major victories in yesterday's primary. The regular republican candidate for governor, Walter J. Kohler, had a commanding lead today over his progressive opponent, Joseph D. Beck.

Gov. Fred Zimmerman, running for re-election and a former member of the La Follette faction, was left far in the rear. It was the first time in 33 years that a governor of Wisconsin failed to be elected for a second term.

Robert La Follette, son of "Fighting Bob," was successful in his effort for the nomination to the United States senate over George W. Mead, the "regular" republican candidate.

Reports from various districts indicated that the regular republicans scored one of their most impressive victories in Wisconsin in recent years. However, in many places the contests were close and the La Follette forces took hope that later returns would change the result materially.

The gubernatorial contest overshadowed all others in the state. It was conceded that young Bob would be elected to his first full senatorial term. He was chosen to fill the unexpired term of his father, who died in office.

Gov. Green Re-nominated

Detroit, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—With the nomination of Governor Fred W. Green as republican gubernatorial candidate by a majority of more than 100,000 votes practically assured, attention in Michigan turned today to the race for the republican lieutenant-governorship nomination.

Loren B. Dickinson, Grand Rapids churchman and ardent dry, apparently was winning out over Fred L. Woodworth, internal revenue collector of Detroit, and reputed "wet" in that race because of a huge majority piled up outside of Detroit.

The voting was lightest in many years. With more than one half of the state's precincts reported, Governor Green, with 195,000 votes, was leading George W. Welsh, of Grand Rapids, his opponent, by more than 100,000. Dickinson, with 110,000 votes was 40,000 ahead of Woodworth, with many "wet" Detroit votes unreported. George E. McArthur, reputed Ku Klux Klan candidate was a poor third in the race.

Apparently all of Michigan's 13 republican congressmen were re-nominated, although outcome in the first district, where Rep. Robt. H. Clancy, of Detroit, was opposed by John R. Sosnowski, former representative from that district, was in some doubt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Benedict and daughter Mrs. Cora Kohlert and the latter's children, Merilyn and Edwin, left for their home in Oak Harbor, Ohio, Monday, after spending the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Shoaf and Mrs. Lena Martin.

MUCH DEPENDS ON COURT RULING

Supreme Court Plans Deep Study Of Stephenson Habeas Corpus Case

Indianapolis, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—Necessity for a written opinion which, it is believed, will in all probabilities determine the status of all the prisoners held in Indiana in regard to writs of habeas corpus will delay the handing down of the supreme court decision on whether the writ of prohibition closing the habeas corpus to D. C. Stephenson should be made permanent.

Supreme court members who, with the exception of Judge Julius C. Travis, now in Massachusetts, heard the arguments offered by Lenn J. Care, of South Bend, and Ralph N. Smith, of Laporte, attorneys for Judge John C. Richter, of the Laporte circuit court; feel that a decision must be reached by the most careful deliberation as in a measure, their decision will set a judicial precedent.

Following three hours consultation Tuesday afternoon, Chief Justice David A. Myers, announced that it would be several days before the decision is rendered by the court as it will probably be necessary to have a written opinion with the decision.
