JAPANESE DINNER BRIDGE HELD AT ELKS HOME

One of the loveliest of the late summer parties, was the charming Japanese Dinner Bridge, given by the Delta Theta Tau Sorority, last evening, at the Elks home, honoring the new patronesses of the sorority, the Mesdames W. A. Klepper, James F. Arnold, Chas. J. Vogelewe and James Cowan, and the new members of the sorority, the Mesdames Winifred Arnold, Mary Margaret Vogelewe, Helen Schmitz and Isabel Neptune. The guests were met at the door by two lovely Japanese maidens, clad in gay kimonos, who directed them to an upstairs room, for the removal of their wraps.

At exactly 6:30 o'clock the guests were ushered into the two beautiful north rooms of the house, and all the exotic beauty of the Orient was borrowed to make the setting one of quaint splendor. Gay Japanese lanterns glimmered from the ceilings and in the corners of the rooms, and the beautiful fireplaces were glowing with a wood fire. Graceful burnished brass incense holders held Araby incense, which lent cloudy enchantment to the rooms. The mantels were adorned with huge gilt Buddhas, and old gold Dragon candlesticks gave Oriental charm to the setting. Multi-colored parrots of gorgeous hues were perched at random on the mantels and in various nooks. The tables were laid with lovely lavender and yellow linen, and each table was adorned with a crystal bud vase, containing a yellow and lavender aster. Great baskets of lavender false dragon heads graced the rooms, and were suggestive of Oriental gardens.

The delicious three-course dinner was served at 7 o'clock and the Japanese note was cleverly adhered to in the attractive menu, and the soft hooded lights, the incense permeated air, the airy butterflies swinging from the ceilings, and the rustle of the Japanese maidens, as they served the dinner, clad in their gay Oriental silks, made the guests feel that they had been transported to some Oriental fairyland. During the dinner, the guests were delighted to hear the strains of Poor Butterfly, and other Japanese songs, on the Orthophonic. The Delta prayer was given by Miss Florence Holthouse before dinner, and at the conclusion of the dinner, the president of the sorority, Mrs. Harold Smith, gave a cordial and charming welcome to the new patronesses and new members of the sorority. The impressive patroness pledge service was then read, and at conclusion of same, the patronesses were presented with the official patroness pin of the sorority, a small triangle pin, with a rose in the center. Mrs. James Cowan, one of the patronesses, being out of the city and unable to attend, sent a telegram of regret, which was read at that time. Miss Isabel Neptune also being out of the city, sent regrets.

Bridge was enjoyed, and prizes were won by Mrs. James Arnold, who was presented with a lovely Japanese tea set, and by Miss Margaret Mylott, who was the recipient of a jade figurine of the Japanese household gods. At the conclusion of the Bridge games, the Japanese servers reappeared, and the guests were served with tea and wafers. Gifts of Delta Theta Tau crest stationery were presented to the new members.

The committee responsible for the lovely affair, was made up of the following: Miss Irene Holthouse, chairman; Margaret Holthouse, Florence Harris, Mildred Keller, and Naomi Durkin. They were assisted in serving by the Mesdames Mary Virginia Hyland, Agnes Baker, Viola Schmitz, and Flotilla Harris.
