WELCOME

Our Wish for a Happy and Pleasant Week Goes Out to Everyone

Sept. 8, 1928

DEAR FRIENDS: There is a fourteen year old boy in this town who is very careful of his appearance. Likes to have his clothes in press.

And instead of complaining about it, his father and mother encourage him in it. They know that neatness is a mighty important thing when a boy starts out in life. A slovenly boy won't get very far.

That may sound like preaching, but I don't mean it that way. I simply want to emphasize the fact that boys in school can keep that spic and span appearance by having their suits cleaned and pressed regularly where at Decatur Laundry.

Mr. Farr says there are some more boys' suits coming in. More than ever before. Good idea!

DECATUR'S TEN CHURCHES HAVE 4,580 MEMBERS

All Of The Churches Have Fine Buildings; Pastors Are Community Workers

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ARE WELL ATTENDED

Decatur has ten churches with a total membership of 4,580 persons, figures obtained today from ministers of the churches showed.

This membership includes those who live outside of the city but who have affiliated themselves with the local churches.

The total does not include all the Sunday school memberships, several of the churches having Sunday school attendants who are not enrolled as members of the church.

The St. Marys Catholic church of which the Rev. Father J. A. Seimetz is pastor, and the Rev. Father Joseph A. Heaston, is assistant has the largest enrollment. The Catholic membership, which includes children, is 1,816. The children under 12 years of age number 717. A child is enrolled in the Catholic church as a member when he or she is baptized.

The next largest church membership is that of the First Methodist Episcopal church. There are 782 members of the Methodist church, while in the Sunday school there are 560 members, a majority of whom are listed in the church membership. The Rev. Ross W. Stoakes is pastor of the church.

The United Brethren church has a membership of 349. The Rev. Cecil R. Smith is pastor of the church. In the Sunday school, there are 475 members.

The Zion Reformed church has a membership of 320 communicants, including several non-resident members. In the Sunday school there are 125 members. The Rev. A. R. Fiedlerjohnann is pastor of the Reformed church.

The Baptist church of which the Rev. O. E. Miller is pastor, has a membership of 187. In the Sunday school, there are 160 attendants.

The Christian church has a membership of an even 100. The Sunday school has a membership of about 65. The Christian church does not have a resident pastor at present, the Rev. Harry W. Thompson having resigned recently and a new minister has not yet been selected.

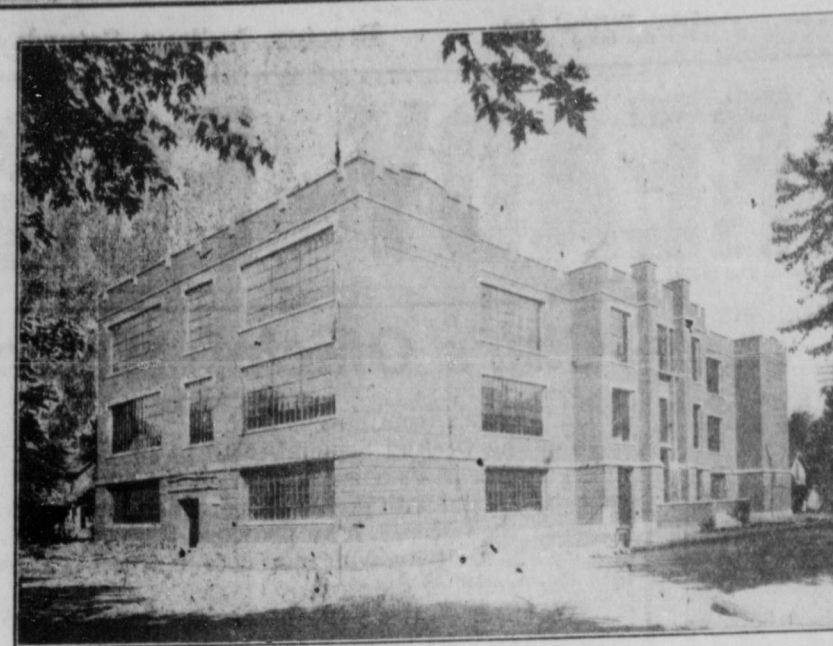

The membership of the First Presbyterian church is 310, with an additional 65 children not included in the above in the Sunday school. The Rev. Harry Fernthell is pastor of the church.

The Evangelical church has a membership of 365. The Sunday school has a membership of 235. The Rev. M. W. Sunderman is pastor of the church.

The Zion Lutheran church has a membership of 263, with an additional 77 in the Sunday school department. The Rev. Paul W. Schultz is pastor of the church.

The Church of God does not have a resident pastor at present. The mem-

DECATUR PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

The Decatur public high school building, pictured above, was erected in 1918 at a cost of $93,000. It was dedicated on Sept. 11, 1918. A large addition, containing an auditorium and gymnasium, was erected in 1922. The building is located at corner of Fifth and Adams streets.

bership of the church is 88.

All of the Decatur churches have fine buildings and splendid pastors. The pastors are active, not only in church work and in spiritual way among members of their congregations but they take an active part in the civic affairs and lend their efforts in the promotion of the general good of the community.

All Boy Scouts in the city are requested to meet at the Central school grounds at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to practice for the Old Home Week demonstration.

Sisters of Mrs. Porter To Attend Dedication Of Elephant Rock Memorial

Word was received here today that Mrs. Florence Stratton Compton and Mrs. Ada Stratton Wilson, both of Fort Wayne, who are the only sisters of the late Gene Stratton Porter, greatly beloved author, will attend "Lumberlost Day" in this city next Tuesday, September 11, and witness the dedication of "Elephant Rock" in the court house yard as a memorial to Mrs. Porter. The presence of Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Wilson is expected to add much to the impressiveness of the occasion.
