SURPRISED ON FIFTH BIRTHDAY

Miss Mary Louise Frank was delightfully surprised by a party given on her fifth birthday, last week. The little miss received many very pretty gifts, and the afternoon was joyfully spent playing games. A delicious two-course luncheon was served to the following guests: Alice Yost, Bobby Yost, Kathryn Schroyer, Rosie Moyer, Herman Moyer, Junior Strickler, Kathryn Koenemann, Catherine Fryback, Lois Jean Frank, and Mary Louise Frank. Mrs. Frank was assisted by Mrs. C. D. Lewton and daughter Eloise.

MISS VIRGINIA MILLER SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Virginia Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller, West Adams street, was subjected to a delightful surprise, Friday evening, when ten of her school mates gathered to assist her in celebrating her birthday anniversary. When all had gathered, the scene of the celebration was moved from the Miller residence to Sun Set Park where a weiner bake and marshmallow roast was enjoyed. Upon returning to the Miller home, the remainder of the evening was spent in playing various games and enjoying radio music. The honor guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts from her friends who included: Mary Maxine Brown, Mary Cowan, Gertrude Brandyberry, Ida May Steele, Mary and Evelyn Kohls, Vera Jane Schlick-man, Bernadine Kolter, all of Decatur, and Nevra Glancy, of Bronson, Michigan.

MEETING OF METHODIST MISSIONARY

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church held a very interesting and successful meeting at the home of Mrs. Homer Lower, Friday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Allen Miller, presiding. The program was in charge of Mrs. John Tyndall and devotional exercises in charge of Mrs. Harkless. The musical numbers rendered by Mrs. Dan Tyndall and Mrs. Ross Stoakes were beautiful and very much appreciated. The talk given by Mrs. Tyndall on "School Begins," the history of Paul's career as a Missionary by Mrs. Harkless, and the poem read by Mrs. R. D. Myers were well prepared and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Allen Miller gave a short spontaneous talk with the thought of the poem "Look Well to This Day" interwoven, which closed the program. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Lower and Mrs. John Bowers, after which the ladies departed with the happy feeling of an afternoon well spent.

The Woman's Relief Corps will meet at Mrs. Schulte's home in a body Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to attend the funeral of Benjamin W. Sholty.

Mrs. Ross Stoakes and Mrs. Orville Baughman are the members of the Everready class of the First Methodist Sunday school, who will serve on the Lookout committee of the class for the month of September.

Miss Veronica Anker, Winchester street, will go to Fort Wayne, Monday morning, where she will assume her duties as teacher of art in the Junior high school at the Hoagland school in Fort Wayne. Miss Anker was instructor in art last year, at Plymouth, Indiana, and enters the Fort Wayne school system with a splendid record as a teacher of art. She will live temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. David J. Hensley, on Nelson street.
