

Church and Sunday School

First Evangelical Church
Rev. M. W. Sunderman Pastor
"The Home" will be the central thought of all the services on the next Lord's Day.

The Sunday School will open promptly at 9:15 under the leadership of Eugene Runyon. Immediately following the lesson study, the pastor will preach upon "The Home and Its Problems." The choir will sing, "My Heavenly Home" by Joseph Smith. This service will dismiss at eleven o'clock.

E. L. C. E. at 6:30. Topic: "How May Every One Become Truly Educated?" Leader: Dorothy Johnston. The evening service at 7:30 will be unique. O twilight Home Scene will be presented. Father, Mother and Children will be seen in the family library. Softly the strains of "Home Sweet Home" will be heard. The Father as the Priest of the home, will read the Scripture Lesson.

The Pastor, Rev. M. W. Sunderman will preach upon: "The Christian Home." The Choir will sing "Savior, To Thy Dear Name" by Arthur W. Nelson.

Church night will be observed on Wednesday Night at 7:30. This church presents a hearty welcome to the public and all former friends of the church.

The church will be open during the week for Meditation, Rest and Worship.

First Christian Church
9:30 A. M.—Bible school
10:30—Communion and worship.
7:00 P. M. Evening worship.

Presbyterian Church
Harry H. Fernthell, pastor
The Presbyterian Church is justly proud of its record in sending into the world citizens of high ideals to the various parts of the states. Men and women who have prospered and met with success in the various walks of life will remember the pleasant hours they spent at the church in communion with Him who is the source of their inspiration, or in time of sorrow and distress, when they needed the help which no human could give, they received the strength they needed, so much.

We welcome our old friends to Decatur. We welcome you to your church of yesterday. The doors of the church will be open every day from nine A. M. to Six P. M. Come in, rest and Pray. Recall fond memories. Meet your old friends.

You are especially welcome to attend the services on Sunday. The Junior Christian Endeavor meets at 9:00 A. M. with such able leaders as Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Lower, Mrs. Engler and Dr. Patterson.

Sunday school at 9:30 with Mr. C. D. Teeple and Mrs. Ed Ashbacher as superintendents. A class for every age, with a capable and trained teacher. Come now let us reason together.

Morning worship at 10:30. In the spirit of devotion, in worship and song we reverence the Lord. The pastor will have a story for the children and a message for all, using for the theme, "The influence of a community, on our lives. The choir has prepared special music which will add to the spirit of devotion.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 P. M. With one of our young people as leader. Everybody is invited.

The Evening Praise service at 7:30 when we will sing many of the old time gospel hymns which we used to sing, and a sermon on the subject "Profit and Loss."

If you want to Worship your God, your are invited to worship with us.

St. Mary's Church
First Mass 7:00
Children's Mass 8:30
High Mass 9:45
Benediction after high mass.

Baptist Bulletin
Our Bible School meets promptly at 9:30. Roy Johnson Superintendent. Morning worship at 10:30. Subject of message, "Three Golden Keys."

B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. The young people are on the job and putting over splendid meetings of inspiration and education.

Tomorrow marks the beginning again of our evening services of praise and evangelism. The service is at 7:30 Subject of message "Coming Home".

Strangers and visitors in our city are extended a cordial welcome to meet with this congregation for fellowship and worship.

"A Small Church with a Big Welcome."

O. E. Miller, Pastor.

Zion Reformed Church

Corner Third and Jackson Streets

A. R. Fiedler, Pastor

Mission Festivals have always been important services in our church life. We hope to make the services tomorrow the best. A splendid program of services has been arranged. A former pastor of the church, the Rev. L. W. Stolte, is the invited speaker. You will see from his subjects that his address will be of much interest.

The services are as follows: Sunday school at 9:15. We hope to have a record attendance. Let us begin the day right.

Morning services at 10:30 o'clock. Subject, "Religious Conditions in Europe". The senior choir will assist in the services by singing, "Soldiers of Christ, Arise" by Stults and "Send out Thy Light" by Lorenz.

Afternoon services at 2:30 o'clock with an address on "Italy and France". Mr. Paul Saurer, one of Decatur's talented singers will assist in this service by special music selections, "By the Rivers of Babylon", by Mr. Saurer and duet, "Come Unto Me," by Mr. Saurer and Mrs. B. Shroyer.

Evening service at 7 o'clock with a stereopticon lecture on "Switzerland." Special selections, "The Silent Voice" by Mrs. B. Shroyer and duet, "Savior, Thy Dying Love" by Mrs. D. Goldner and Mrs. B. Shroyer.

While this is our annual Mission Festival tomorrow we want to also welcome and recognize former members and friends of the church who may have come to attend the Old Home Week celebration.

Noon and evening luncheon will be served in the dining room of the church. The ladies of the church are asked to bring well-filled baskets. Then let us above all remember that a special offering will be lifted at all the services, which should be liberal and in harmony with the spirit of the day.

Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church
Paul W. Schultz, Pastor
German mission-festival services at 10 o'clock in the morning. Rev. C. B. Pressus will preach.

English mission-festival services in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. Prof. E. Schuedler will give the address. Sunday school will be conducted as usual at 9:30 A. M.

The First Methodist Church
The Sunday School in charge of Mr. E. D. Colter will meet at 9:30 A. M. The Supt. urges that every teacher be in his or her place. Large classes are looked for now that the vacation season is over.

The Morning service will be in charge of the pastor, R. W. Stoakes. He will be assisted in the service by the choir. This is a ritualistic service made primarily for the church people. Let every member be present.

In the afternoon at 2:30 there will be a "Rally" for the Epworth Leagues of this subdistrict. Scott Houser who is a missionary in South America and who is working among young people will be the speaker. Mr. Houser is supported by the Epworth Leagues of this district. There will be a pot-luck supper following the afternoon session.

At 6:30 Mr. Houser will conduct a typical South American Epworth League devotional meeting and assisted by some of the young people of the sub-district. will conduct this meeting in Spanish.

At 7:30 will be the regular evening service with the exception that Mr. Houser will be the speaker. This service is for every one and the public is cordially invited.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Livers, of Bozeman Montana, are parents of a boy baby, which was born this morning, September 8, 1928, at the Adams County Memorial hospital. Mrs. Livers is a daughter of H. A. Fuhrman, Decatur route one.

Miss Alvera Vian, 1139 W. Monroe street, underwent a tonsillectomy this morning at the local hospital.

Come to Washington

The educational advantages of a visit to the Capital of our Nation are of inestimable value

Stop at the LEE HOUSE
15th and L Streets, N. W.
Three squares to the White House. A new and modern Hotel. Refined environment. 250 rooms 250 baths

Rates:
Single room $3.50 daily
Double room $5.00 daily
Single room (with meals) $6.00
2 persons (with meals) $10.00

Robert Bloch, President

COURT HOUSE

Case Dismissed

The case of Henry Knefelkamp vs. Arthur Kimberlin et al was dismissed today by agreement of the parties.

Payments Are Deferred

In the case of Marguerite Finland Hann vs. Bueford Hann, the defendant was cited for contempt of court for failure to make payment previously ordered by the court. At the hearing this morning, the defendant offered evidence to show that he was unable to earn money to make the payments, due to a physical inability, and the court deferred the payments until further order.

Petition Withdrawn

The petition for admission of Estella Gilliom to the Richmond State hospital has been withdrawn.

Real Estate Sold

In the estate of John Wagoner, the report of sale of real estate was filed and approved.

Marriage Licenses

Gerald Liby, factory employe, Linn

Grove, to Rose Roth, Monroe.

Whiting, Ind., Sept. 8—Allys are not the proper places to engage in a crap game in Whiting. That conclusion may be drawn from the fact that Motor. Policeman John Surdukowski of this city jailed two men, whom he found engaged in the pastime.

Get the Habit—Trade at Home, It Pays

Welcome to Decatur

We wish to extend a cordial welcome to friends and visitors during

"OLD HOME WEEK."

Visit us at our New store.

The Vitz Gift Shop

North Second Street

Niblick Building

Welcome, Visitors

May your week with us be most pleasant and enjoyable.

Make our store your headquarters while in the city. We would be glad to have your company any hour of the day.

We have arranged a number of Specials for "Old Home Week" which it will pay you to take advantage of. Ask us about them.

At Your Service With a Complete Line of Groceries

Phone 155

Free Delivery

Why Carry Your Groceries when we deliver in the city and within a radius of one mile of Decatur, twice daily? By carrying a complete line of Groceries, Meats, Candy, Pastries, Tobacco and Cigars, we can take care of your needs at any time.

GIVE US A TRIAL.

A & C Grocery Co.

937 North 2nd St.

Phone 155

Lee Hdw. Co.

EAST MONROE STREET

B. B. OINTMENT

—excellent for—

Eczema, Barber's Itch, Itch, Itching
Piles, Pimples, Poison.

or any other kind of skin eruption.

50c—Sold by all druggists.

Welcome Home The Decatur Hatchery

The Home of

"Decatur Quality Baby Chicks."

Poultry Feeds, Remedies and Supplies.

We invite you to visit our modern and all Electric Incubators at any time. Always buy "Decatur Quality Chicks" and assure yourself the pleasure of getting real strong and healthy baby chicks.

Quality—Service—Satisfaction

The Decatur Hatchery

Phone 497

Decatur, Ind.

Welcome!

The Methodist Church takes a great pleasure in extending a Welcome to all visitors during this Old Home Week.

Familiar in the minds of many is this splendid church edifice. From the early days of Decatur it grew and expanded with the population and has thrived with their membership.

The present church building was erected in the year 1881. Open house will be held all week to welcome you. At the close of the week—Sunday, September 16—Special services will be held to which you are most cordially invited.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
Decatur, Indiana

ROSS W. STOAKES,
Pastor.