

HOME-COMERS ARE ARRIVING FOR CELEBRATION

Adams county. School children from all sections of Adams county will join in the program.

Pageant Tuesday Night

The historical pageant, "Adams County Yesterday and Today," will be given Tuesday night on the golf course at the Decatur Country Club. Mrs. James R. Blair directing the presentation. Two hundred and fifty persons, including about 150 children, are participating in the pageant. It will be a wonderful presentation of the early history of Adams county. This will be a free event.

Wednesday will be Dairy Day and, besides the program up town, an elaborate program will be given at the plant of the Cloverleaf Creamery, Inc., on South Winchester street. Prizes to calf club winners will be awarded during the program and the event will be one of the features of the week.

Thursday, all of the lodges, clubs and societies will join in a Fraternal program and parade. Clubs and lodges will hold open house during the week for the reception of guests and men prominent in lodge and club circles will be here.

Friday, an Industrial parade, led by the Portland band, will be held. Nearly 100 floats, decorated automobiles and special attractions will be entered in the parade. The parade will be held Thursday afternoon and prizes will be awarded for the most attractive float in the parade.

Saturday will see a final wind-up of the big week and the day is crowded with a dozen big attractions.

Home-comers will be asked to have their pictures taken, the Queen of the Mardi Gras will be crowned, a football game between Decatur and Auburn high schools will be played and concerts by the Fort Wayne News-Sentinel Boys band and the Decatur G. E. band will be given.

Saturday night, the Mardi Gras parade will take place and the Old Home Week festivities will be brought to a close in a blaze of glory and happy memory.

COOKING WITHOUT WATER
WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 12

You are cordially invited to visit our store on Wednesday, Sept. 12, when Mr. Allen, a representative from the MIRRO aluminum factory, will be here to demonstrate the new Vapo-Seal type of utensils. Come and let him show you how economical and efficient these utensils are; how a complete meal of meat, potatoes, vegetables and dessert may be prepared in one utensil over one low flame; how to cook cheaper cuts of meat tender and savory and how to give you many hours of leisure. We feel sure that anyone interested in the preparation of healthful and tasty meals will enjoy and benefit by this demonstration.
