Two Cars Collide At Street Intersection

An automobile accident occurred at the intersection of Fifth and Monroe streets at about 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, when cars driven by Albert Lehrman and Forrest Passwater collided at the crossing. Mr. Lehrman was driving a small car with a truck body. One left wheel was torn off. The other car, a light touring, was badly damaged, left wheel, running board and front of the car being damaged. No one was hurt.

Arthur Voglewede left Sunday for Washington, D. C., where he will resume his law course at Georgetown University.
