THE CAMPAIGN LOG

(U.P.)—Governor Alfred E. Smith will arrive in Milwaukee tonight and speak there tomorrow night. Last night at St. Paul, Minn., he pledged "immediate relief" of inland waterways conditions, if elected. He said the equalization fee was one of several methods of controlling farm surpluses.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Smith's running mate, spoke at Springfield, Mo., in praise of the governor's labor legislation.

Senator Curtis, Republican vice-presidential nominee, told several Oklahoma audiences that a protective tariff is the solution of the farm problem.

Charles Evans Hughes will open a speaking tour, boosting Hoover, beginning Oct. 22.
