VOYAGE OF COLUMBUS, 436 YEARS AGO IS CONTRASTED TO FLIGHT OF

Santa Maria, with Martin Alonso Pinzon as commander of the Pinta and his brother, Vincent Yanez Pinzon, as commander of the Nina. They left the port on Friday, August 3, 1492—some indications of land were discovered late in the night of October 11. At 10 o'clock on the night of the 11th, Columbus was on his deck, eagerly watching for signs of land, when he discovered a light on the verge of the horizon. Early the next morning, a sailor of the Pinta first saw land; believing he was in India, Columbus called the inhabitants "Indians." He soon discovered it to be an island—one of the Bahamas, which he named San Salvador.

Discovery day is a state holiday and the banks in this city were closed today.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 12.—(U.P.)—Thomas Hickman, father of William Edward Hickman, will leave here Saturday for California to appear before Gov. Young in a last minute attempt to save the son from the gallows, he said today.

Hickman said he received a telegram today from his son's attorneys urging him to appear before the governor. He said, however, he was afraid his appearance before the governor would do little good.

RASKOB REBUKES H. J. HASBROUGH

Washington, Oct. 12.—(U.P.)—Rebuked by John J. Raskob, Democratic National chairman, for his charge that Herbert Hoover was connected with Latin American oil concessions, former Senator Henry V. Hasbrough refused nevertheless to budge from his position today.

Hasbrough sent a telegram to the United Press, reiterating his charge and adding that he regretted what he termed Raskob's "hasty attack."

"The statements and charges I made are true," Hasbrough continued. "The evidence sustains me."

"I regret especially Mr. Raskob's comparing my charges against Mr. Hoover to the vicious personal attacks made on Gov. Smith certainly it is no disgrace to have private interests in foreign lands. What I did was to call attention to the fact that such interests on such a large scale are undesirable in one aspiring to the Presidency."

Hasbrough is head of the Smith Independent League.

New York, Oct. 12.—(U.P.)—Chairman John J. Raskob of the Democratic National committee has disclaimed responsibility for the Minneapolis address of Henry G. Hasbrough, former Republican senator, linking Herbert Hoover with Latin-American oil concessions.

"Any attempt to vilify a candidate for the high office of President is a low form of politics," Raskob said.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hower and daughters, Isabel and Katherine left this morning on a motor trip to Greencastle, where they will visit with Miss Geraldine Hower, who is a student at DePauw University. Returning to Indianapolis on Sunday morning, they will spend Sunday with Marcella Hower, a teacher in the Indianapolis schools.
