Politics is makin' such strange bed-fellows down our way that many prefer to walk around all night. "Oh, I wuzn' much impressed with him. He looks like a feller that'd listen to statistics," said Ike Soles, when asked what he thought of Min Hanger's new husband. —Abe Martin, Indianapolis News.

STUMP AND WARD HEARD BY LARGE CROWD AT BERNE

In Indiana and other states are confronted with similar startling conditions.

"Farm prosperity is a myth. Twenty thousand farms have been abandoned in the last five years. The farmer is one of the best markets for manufactured products. When the farmer finds that he has little or no money to buy manufactured products then the employment in the cities suffer. It is a circle and there must be equality of economic opportunity to assure prosperity to very one."

Mr. Stump made a plea for the election of Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democratic candidate for President, who has promised relief to the farmer and "friendliness in the place of hostility." He paid a tribute to Governor Smith's leadership and stated that his election meant the carrying out of the promises in the Democratic platform.

Mr. Stump also asked that the voters on November 6, elect Frank C. Dailey governor of Indiana and at the same time give him friendly men in the other state offices. He mentioned the names of the Democratic state candidates for the different state offices and asked that they be elected. The mention of Governor Smith and of the Democratic candidates were heartily applauded.

Mr. Ward's Address
Mr. Ward, in opening his talk, paid tribute to the people of Berne. He mentioned the unique place Berne held in the world of music and the nation-wide reputation it had for being a place of religious piety and character.

He dwelt on the farm issue, stressing the urgent need for farm relief and of the utter lack of sympathy and action on the part of the Republican administration within the last eight years to do something for the farmer. He stated that, in the eight years, two bills for farm relief were passed and then both of them vetoed by President Coolidge, who in scathing words, denounced the theory of extending aid to the farmer. Mr. Ward remarked, "the greatest and wealthiest nation on earth should not let its farmers bleed to death. The administration is doing it and is not offering any remedy. What the nation needs today is fearless leadership and all Mr. Hoover says is that he will assist." He asked the question, "Why hasn't something been done in the last eight years?"

Close Attention Given
Close attention was given by the large crowd assembled in the auditorium. The building was comfortably filled, every chair on the main floor being occupied, while the gallery seats were more than half occupied.

Candidates Introduced
Clifton E. Striker, county superintendent of schools, presided as chairman of the meeting and, previous to the two addresses by the candidates, a musical program by the Dunbar band and singing by the Magley quartet was enjoyed. The quartet was called on for several selections. All of the Democratic candidates for county office, who were seated on the platform, together with a number of others, were introduced to the audience by Mr. Striker. Each candidate received the applause of the crowd. The meeting started at about 7:40 o'clock and adjourned at 10:15 o'clock. Following the adjournment of the meeting, those present met Mr. Stump and Mr. Ward and extended to them the hearty good wishes for success on election day. Mr. Striker also mentioned that on next Wednesday, October 31, Curtis Shake, Democratic candidate for Attorney General of Indiana, would speak at Geneva and he invited the people of Adams county to hear him.

ELECTORAL VOTE OF STATES GIVEN

Who's going to be elected? Tell the world if you know. A week from next Tuesday, the voters of the nation will decide who'll serve as President of the United States for the next four years beginning March 4, 1929. Many people like to "work out" the election on paper and the following table gives the electoral vote for each state. The table also gives the popular vote of each state in 1924. It takes a total of 266 votes to elect. Now get out pencil and put down the states Al Smith and Herbert Hoover will carry and see how close you come to the actual results on November 6:

MEETING OF M. E. LADIES AID

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist church met at the church parsonage, Friday afternoon, for their regular meeting. Mrs. Homer Lower, president of the society, presided over the meeting. The meeting opened with devotions led by Mrs. Charity Hooper, after which the general routine of business was conducted. A collection of $23 was turned in during the afternoon. Rev. Stoakes addressed ed the society with a short talk after which two readings given by Mrs. Harl Hollingsworth were greatly enjoyed, together with an instrumental duet by Mrs. Dee Fryback and Mrs. Harl Hollingsworth. A committee, comprised of Mrs. W. F. Beery, Mrs. Walt Johnson and Mrs. Clyde Butler, served refreshments to the fifty guests present. Mrs. Stoakes issued an invitation to the Aid Society to hold all of their meetings during the winter months at the parsonage instead of at the church, where special fires must be built for the occasion. The invitation was gratefully accepted.

Miss Florence Haney will be hostess to the Tri Kappa sorority, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

ENTERTAIN WITH HALLOWEEN PARTY

Miss Mary Helen Lose and Miss Catherine Schumacher were hostesses to a number of their friends at a Halloween party given last evening, at the William Schumacher residence, on Line street. The home was gaily decorated in crepe paper streamers of black and orange. Cutouts of black cats and owls adorned the windows, and weird ghosts of every description were arranged about the entertaining rooms. A large crepe paper lady stood in one corner while umbrellas, fashioned in the shape of men, caused much amusement. Subdued lights of ghostly aspect were in keeping with the season. After all the guests had arrived, a guessing contest was enjoyed, and the girl's prize was awarded to Miss Loretta Malley, while Rich and Wertzberger received the boy's prize. The evening was spent in playing games of a Halloween nature, after which a delicious plate lunch, which consisted of salmon sandwiches, baked apples, individual pumpkin pies with whipped cream, and hot chocolate, was served by Miss Viola Schmitz and Miss Margaret Schumacher. The out-of-town guests who attended the party were Miss Ruth Schwartz, Miss Virginia Ehinger, Miss Helen Gray, all of Fort Wayne.

HALLOWEEN PARTY IN DECORATED BARN

Miss Margaret Kitson and Miss Dorothy Young united in entertaining at a novel and enjoyable Halloween party, Thursday evening. The guests met at the Kitson home, from which they motored to the J. A. Cline home, north of the city. The party took place in the barn, which was decorated in Halloween colors, black and orange, and ghosts of a very weird aspect. In various corners of the barn, corn shocks were placed while brilliant colored leaves formed a very pretty setting for the party. Games were played, prizes being won by Vivian Lynch, Laura Lankenau, Bob Passwater and Harold Shoaf. Refreshments of apples, pop-corn and cider were served. Those enjoying the party were Vivian Lynch, Laura Lankenau, Mary McIntosh, Ruth Roop, Margaret Kitson and Dorothy Young; George Helm, Harold Shoaf, Bob Passwater, Johnny Engle and Ralph Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hendricks, of Monroe, attended the funeral of the Rev. A. A. Pittinger, at Marion, last week. Rev. Pittinger was a cousin of Mrs. Hendricks. He was a retired Methodist minister and had preached for more than 40 years, in Indiana and Iowa.
