orator at Fort Wayne tonight.

DON'T FAIL TO HEAR MRS.
RIGGS AT THE COURT HOUSE FRI-DAY EVENING.

Listen to Mrs. Riggs at the court house Friday evening, the closing speech of the campaign.

Hold your temper a few more days.
You have done very well considering the tenseness of the campaign and it would be a shame to spoil it by getting mad now.

Several hundred from this county will attend the Robinson meeting at Fort Wayne tonight. Get out the old car, put on a few banners and join them. You will enjoy it.

The Curtis Shake meeting at Geneva last night was enthusiastic and the predictions on every hand indicate a splendid democratic majority from that part of the county next Tuesday.

The truck driver who ate dinner here yesterday and attracted a lot of attention because he was dressed and made up as a woman was perhaps paying a Hoover election bet in advance so he could have it over.

Mrs. Riggs will speak in Geneva, Berne and Monroe tomorrow afternoon. She has a message that every woman voter in the county should hear for she explains many things that have been bothering you.

Frank Dailey will be elected governor next Tuesday if there is any thing in advance signs. Every where are found boosters, both republican and democrat for this man who has proven his ability and whose private and public life has been absolutely clean. He will have a big job to do but he is big enough to do it and do it well.

What a tame campaign the republicans would have conducted if they had not used the whispers and the underhanded methods. So far as a discussion of the real issues or any defense of the state and national administrations are concerned — well, there "just ain't been none," to speak of.

The democrats present to you a ticket composed of excellent people and ask your support. Headed by Don C. Ward, of Union City, candidate for congress and an able and capable man, the ticket includes candidates fitted for the positions they seek. You need not hesitate to vote for them and you can save trouble and time by marking in the rooster circle.

The Literary Digest poll is complete and gives Governor Smith six states.
So far we haven't heard of any one desiring to bet that he won't carry more than that and the story sent out by the Digest reads as though they themselves don't take much stock in the showing made. With only fourteen per cent returns on the cards, it does seem that they could have saved a lot of money.

Those who have stood for Mellon and his enforcement do not appear in a very good light when fighting the democratic ticket. He was a distiller, wettest of the wets and right now

TODAY'S CHUCKLE

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 1—A new fish, tentatively christened the ogopogo was caught in Long Bay. It was six feet long, had a head like a sheep and an eel-like body.

there are those who boast of having some of Mellon's liquor in their cellar. If the politics was taken out of it, the story would be so much different.

The republicans are waging a campaign in the east, rushing all their headliners there in hopes of saving the industrial states which are unquestionably in doubt. We see fellows with their chest sticking out a foot or two, talking about betting four or five to one on Mr. Hoover but if those are the odds why all the desperate effort at the closing?

We have no quarrels with the workers for the prohibition laws but we are surprised that they indirectly endorse Secretary Mellon and his enforcement of the laws. Any boy or girl can buy liquor if they have the money, most anywhere in the country. If that's temperance, we have had the wrong idea of it all this time. If Mellon was a democrat he would probably be roundly and soundly condemned.

You may not agree with Governor Smith, but you surely believe he is honest, courageous, capable and safe.
He is more than that, dear folks, he is your friend and if you elect him president next Tuesday, he will devote every thing he has to helping you and to make this a better country in which to live. Why do you think of doing any thing else, if you are sold on that?

The public school teachers of the country should be solidly behind Governor Smith. In no state in the union has a governor made such a record for the schools as he has. If his record is investigated, it will be found that during the eight years he has served as chief executive of the great state of New York he has built up the finest system in the world, the teachers are the best paid and every department has been splendidly taken care of.

Betting is two and a half to one on Roosevelt in New York where he is a candidate for governor against Mr. Ottinger. Odds also favor Governor Smith in New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island and even money is being placed on other states.
Just how the gamblers figure odds on Mr. Hoover to win nationally is one of the strange things of the campaign which will be explained after election.

The Literary Digest will probably go out of the straw vote business after this year because of the lack of interest. They sent out nineteen million ballots and received back less than three million. The straws will miss in so many states that no one will have faith hereafter in such features. Similar results are reported by about every newspaper and magazine which tried to secure an advance report on the election. The silent vote will control next Tuesday.

Robert Lansing, secretary of state under President Wilson and for years a prominent figure in Washington life, died suddenly yesterday, after a short illness with heart trouble. He was an international lawyer of great ability and was credited with being the best posted man on subjects of international moment in America.
During the latter years of Mr. Wilson's administration, Mr. Lansing virtually conducted the presidential duties. A break between he and the president caused his resignation in 1920.

The election of Governor Smith will immediately increase the value of every acre of farm land in Adams county. He will call a committee within a month to plan for those things necessary to improve conditions. At once there will be a derease in the value of land in Adams county. He will call a committee

Girl Pilot Flirts With Death

Piloting a tiny Waco plane, Eleanor Smith, 17, Long Island society girl, flew under all four of East River bridges—the Queensboro, Williamsburg, Manhattan and Brooklyn—to give Manhattanites the greatest thrill of recent years. The splendid action photo shows Miss Smith (inset) in her craft immediately after diving under one of the spans.

POLITICS ON THE AIR

New York, Nov. 1—(UPI)—Charles Evans Hughes will make the only political speech of major importance over a National Radio network at 8 p.m.
EST., tonight when 38 stations of the National Broadcasting company broadcast his Brooklyn address.

Friday night the air will be filled with campaign speeches. Large networks of stations will broadcast addresses by Alfred E. Smith, Herbert Hoover Senator Borah and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

HOSPITAL NOTES
Leonard Staszel, Monroeville route one, underwent a major operation this morning, at the Adams County Memorial hospital.

Harold LeBrun, 510 Patterson street, had his tonsils removed this morning at the local hospital.

Among those removed to their respective homes following medical treatment or surgery at the Adams County Memorial hospital were: Miss Mabel Staley, West Monroe street, Decatur; Phyllis Shanahan, 607 West Marshall street, Decatur; Mrs. Raymond Shack-and Mrs. Gladys Houser, Bryant.

Effect's Mousstrap

By substituting a special trap lid for the ordinary top, a glass fruit jar may be used effectively for catching several mice, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. A swing door in the lid falls back, so that the mouse cannot escape, but is in position to catch another. The device is sanitary.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croesote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germs growth.

Of all known drugs, croesote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations.
Creomulsion contains, in addition to croesote, other healing elements which soothand heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the croesote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions.
