Lava From Mount Etna Flows Into Two Cities

Catania, Italy, Nov. 6.—(U.P.)—The main stream of lava from Mount Etna, which burst into violent eruption again last night, had touched two cities today and was threatening a third.

The main stream of lava poured down the Vallonazzo Valley and already has touched the villages of Puntalazzo and Nunziata. The lava flow is continuing towards the city of Mascali.

Everything in the path of the molten mass—including valuable vineyards and orchards—has been destroyed.

Paolino Uzcudun Wins From Otto Von Porat

New York, Nov. 6.—(U.P.)—Tex Rickard's first heavyweight elimination bout of the winter accomplished nothing toward finding Gene Tunney's successor, Paolino Uzcudun, the big but ponderous basque, last night won a 10-round decision from Otto Von Porat, Norwegian with the elongated chin, in Madison Square Garden.

Uzcudun twice had Von Porat down for a count, but the basque's own awkwardness prevented him from winning by a knockout. In the first round Paolino floored Von Porat with a left hook for a count of five. Von Porat came up dazed but finished the round because of Paolino's wildness.

Von Porat went down for a count of nine in the fifth but the basque was unable to finish his man when Otto staggered to his feet.

Von Porat, a former Olympic champion, came east touted as the hardest hitter among the heavyweights since Jack Dempsey's day. He turned out to be a badly overrated fighter.

Automobile Used In Newcastle Holdup Found

Anderson Ind., Nov. 6.—(U.P.)—Automobile used in the robbery of the Trainor National Spring company of Newcastle Ind., has been found near here, according to police.

Police said pay envelopes found in the automobile provided identification. Police expressed the belief that the three bandits abandoned the car when it ran out of gas and the steering gear went out of commission.

The Spring company was robbed of $1,800 as the paymaster counted the money prior to the paying of the weekly payroll.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER IS UNPERTURBED

17-Year-Old Killer Sits In Cell And Reads; Insanity Defense Planned

Port Richmond, N. Y., Nov. 6.—(U.P.)—Vincent Rice, the 17-year-old school boy who admitted killing his sweetheart, Alice Joost, because she tried to kiss him seemed unperturbed today over the first degree murder indictment returned against him.

"How long will I have to serve if I am found guilty?" he asked one of his guards.

The question was asked several hours after the youth had been advised of the indictment and it was the only interest he showed. He spends most of his time in his prison cell reading.

Defense attorneys expect to present an insanity defense. It is probable the trial will not begin until December.

The girl's mother, when told of the indictment against the youth, said: "If he is guilty, the law will take care of him."

DECATUR GIRL BECOMES NURSE

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 6.—Miss Mary A. Macklin, of Decatur, is one of 204 students of Indiana University whose names are included on the fall list of graduates. These students are counted as members of the 1928 graduating class but did not receive their diplomas at the commencement exercises in June, on account of lacking a few required hours. This work was completed by the students during the summer session or by correspondence.

Miss Macklin received the registered nurse degree.

The list is composed of 84 candidates for the A. B. degree; 50 for the master of arts degree; 13 for the bachelor of science degree in medicine; five for the doctor of philosophy degree; three for the B. S. degree in home economics; seven for the B. S. degree in commerce and finance; three for the doctor of dental surgery degree; six for the B. S. degree in education; 30 for the graduate nurse degree; two for the bachelor of laws degree; one for the jurist doctor degree, and two for the bachelor of public school music degree.

Mercedes Gleitz Fails To Swim Irish Channel

Donaghadee, Ireland, Nov. 6.—(U.P.)—Mercedes Gleitz, London stenographer and channel swimmer today had failed in her attempt to swim the Irish Channel. She was forced from the water when the sea suddenly roughened and made further progress impossible.

Miss Gleitz had covered 10 of the 22 miles of cold channel water in three and one half hours when she was forced to abandon her attempt.

HOOVER GOES TO POLLS EARLY

Republican Candidate Enjoys Good Night's Rest; Spends Quiet Day

By Thomas L. Stokes
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Palo Alto, Cal., Nov. 6.—(U.P.)—Herbert Hoover went into an election booth on the campus of Leland Stanford University today and cast a vote for himself and other republicans, thus performing a duty that brought him all the way across the continent.

His vote will symbolize the millions being cast—a great shower of ballots which is to determine whether Hoover will climax his career by occupying the White House.

The Republican Presidential candidate was accompanied to the polling place—Stanford Woman's Club on the Campus—by four other Hoover voters. His wife, his two sons, Allan and Herbert, Jr., and the latter's wife.

In keeping with his appeal to the Nation's voters broadcast last night, he voted early. He and members of his family entered their motor car at 10 o'clock and rode the short distance from the Hoover home on San Juan Hill to the University.

The candidate was up early today. Fresh after a good night's rest, which has served to overcome the tiring ordeal of his long train journey. He appeared confident. He looked out upon the familiar scenes of his young manhood and held still fresh in his mind the joyous home-coming welcome accorded him yesterday.

The candidate and his family will spend a quiet day. In the evening, Hoover will remain in his home to receive election returns over the United Press wire.

In his speech Hoover broadcast from his home, he suggested this election more than any that has come before gives hope for the breaking down of sectional lines. This was interpreted as a direct appeal to the South to withdraw its previous allegiance to the Democratic party.

County Treasurer's Office Closed Today

The county treasurer's office was closed today, so that County Treasurer Ed Ashbacher and his deputies could tabulate and total the receipts for the fall installment of taxes. Yesterday was a busy day at the treasurer's office and it is expected that the receipts totaled between $75,000 and $90,000. Until the tax duplicate has been credited with the payments, it will not be known how much of the taxes went delinquent. Yesterday was the last day to pay the fall installment without the ten per cent penalty being added.
