Knights Of Pythias Hold District Meets

Washington, Ind., Nov. 19—(U.P.)—The first of a series of conference-dinner meetings by 23 Knights of Pythias lodges of this district was to be held here tonight.

A representative of all the local lodges throughout the district and a large turnout from the Washington branch were expected at tonight's gathering.

Samuel L. Trabue, Shelbyville, grand chancellor; Levi Hooker, Evansville, Grand vice-chancellor and Carl Mitchell, grand keeper of records and seal, also were expected to attend.

Two New Oil Wells In Gibson County

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 19—(U.P.)—Two new oil wells have been brought in this vicinity and are producing between 4 and 45 barrels daily, according to reports.

One is on the John Williams farm, five miles southeast of Oakland City, drilled by Randall and Rogers of this city. The other is located in the Edna Kime lease in the Oatsville district, brought in by the Darby Oil Company.

The oil was reached in the brown sand at a depth of 380 feet. The latter well is the second well on that lease.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bonifas and Arthur Bonifas spent Sunday in Delphos, Ohio.
