Former Policeman Held

Indianapolis, Nov. 22—(U.P.)—Federal and state investigators today probed the activities of John Etroh, 33, former Indianapolis policeman, who was held under $5,000 bond charged with violation of the Dyer motor theft act.

Arrest of Stroh was ordered by the state police department when Stroh went to municipal court to answer a charge of vagrancy that had been placed against him, while an allegedly stolen automobile was traced.

Raper has had considerable newspaper experience. His brother is part owner and manager of the Brazil, Ind., Daily Times and it is understood the two have worked on the same paper together.

S. L. and S. H. Walls, former owners of the Leader which is the only publication in the city, announced their intentions of taking up newspaper work elsewhere. The Walls brothers brought the paper from S. D. Dempsey three years ago.

Four Couple Held In

married couples have confessed here to stealing more than 1,000 chickens in the last few months, according to police.

Those who confessed were Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, Vincennes; Mr. and Mrs. Elza Hager and Mr. and Mrs. William Fleshmann, Bruceville, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hager, Bicknell.

During efforts by farmers to round up chicken thieves, a police dog was blinded when acid was thrown in its eyes. Those held, however, deny they were guilty of injuring the animal.

Dempsey May Fight One More Time, Is Prediction

Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 22—(U.P.)—Jack Dempsey didn't make a lot of money on his grape crop this year, so you shouldn't be surprised if he goes back for one more fight, he said when asked about his future plans.

Dempsey arrived yesterday from an unsuccessful eastern stage venture, but would reveal nothing specific about the possibilities of his return to the ring.

Dempsey was willing to talk grapes to any extent, but dodged questions on whether he would put on the gloves again.
