Reppert Will Probated

Bluffton, Jan. 8.—(U.P.)—The will of Frederick Reppert, of Vera Cruz, was admitted in Wells circuit court for probate today. The entire estate, both real and personal, goes to the widow to be used as she sees fit during her life. At time of death, the estate is to be divided among the remaining children, equally. The will was written in 1900, and one of the shortest ever probated here.

APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATOR

WATSON VISITS HOOVER TODAY

Reports That Senate Will Pass Kellogg Pact And Navy Cruiser Bill

Washington, Jan. 8.—(U.P.)—President-elect Hoover today was informed by Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, and Senator Hale, Republican, Maine, that the senate will pass its regular program with the adoption of the Kellogg pact and the navy cruiser bill without difficulty.

Beyond this, Watson and Hale said their visit was confined to paying their respects to the president-elect and discussion of Mr. Hoover's South American tour.

Mr. Hoover inaugurated the system of breakfast conferences today by inviting Senator Borah, chairman of the foreign relations committee, to breakfast with him.

Following the breakfast Borah told the United Press they discussed "the general situation regarding legislation" but any details must come from Mr. Hoover.

Blackmer's Refusal To Return Home Costs Dearly

Washington, Jan. 8.—(U.P.)—Refusal of Harry M. Blackmer, Denver oil multimillionaire, to return from Paris to testify in the Sinclair-fall and Sinclair teapot dome trials, has now cost him $200,000.

U. S. Marshal Snyder has taken over a second $100,000 from Blackmer's attorneys, under the Walsh law providing for seizure of this amount from recalcitrant witnesses. If the contempt of court charge is upheld, the money will be confiscated.

Blackmer has appealed the judgment against him on the first seizure, so the amount will not be turned into the treasury until a final ruling on the law, probably by the supreme court, is reached.
