Fire Damages Factory At Portland, Thursday

Portland, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Fire which broke out early Thursday morning in the steel cutting room of the Portland Forge and Foundry Works, did damage estimated at $4,000, and caused a shut down until temporary repairs can be made.

The steel cutting room is on the east side of the plant, and is the place where steel is cut for forging. Besides the furnaces, there are the big shears, driven by a powerful motor, two other motors, blowers and other equipment. The fire started when an oil burner at the furnace exploded throwing flaming oil all over the interior of the building.

Railroad Seeks To Collect Freight Bill

A suit was filed in federal court at Fort Wayne by the Pennsylvania railroad company against the Cloverleaf Creameries, Inc. of Decatur, in which the railroad company seeks judgment for $99.27, alleged to be the balance due on a freight bill for the shipment of 22,800 pounds of butter from Orleans, Neb. to Decatur. The original freight amount contained in a correct freight bill on the shipment was paid, and the $99.27 represents an additional amount contained in a corrected bill, filed later by the railroad company.

Newcastle Woman Kills Crippled Son And Herself

Newcastle, Ind., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Apparently despondent because her seven-year-old son Morris, had been a hopeless cripple since birth, Mrs. William Lawless, 35, took her son's life and then committed suicide here.

The two bodies were discovered by the woman's husband Lelon, lying together in a bed, each having been killed by a .22 caliber revolver. The gun was found lying on the floor.

The woman after shooting her son, apparently climbed into bed and turned the revolver on herself. The bed clothing was partly pulled about both.

A note left by the woman intimating that she was despondent because of her child's condition.
