BILL AIMED AT POISON LIQUOR PEDDLERS DIES

uniform county salary bill drafted by the state board of accounts on direction of the 1927 legislature, was demonstrated when representatives of six counties, the Indiana Farm Bureau federation, the Indiana Anti-Saloon League and the Indiana Taxpayers' association, voiced protest at a public hearing in the house chamber Tuesday night.

Anti-Saloon League opposition is based on the proposal to take the $25 liquor prosecution fee away from prosecutors in less populous counties. Representative Frank E. Wright, Indianapolis, author of the Wright bone-dry act, said he would attempt to restore the liquor fees amendment.

Senators were expressing alarm at the slowness in which the house is considering measures passed by the senate. The senate has passed thirteen house bills while the house has killed two senate measures and passed none.

GOOD INTEREST AT REVIVAL HERE

Interesting Features Being Given At Evangelical Church Services

Another good sized audience was present at the First Evangelical church last night, when the Rev. M. W. Sunderman preached upon: "We Would See Jesus."

The children's meetings each afternoon at 4 o'clock are creating much interest.

The sermon theme tonight will be "Truly Happy People." Oliver Walter and son will bring a special message in song tonight.

On Friday night, the young people's chorus, of Berne, will sing. Other interesting features be heard from night to night.

Some expressions gleaned from the sermon last night are:

"We would see Jesus is the cry of the hearts of men today."

"You will first see Jesus as Savior, or you will not see Him at all."

"It is easier for God to talk to man in the silence of the closet than it is in the noise of the crowd."

"The rush of everyday things keeps us from the consideration of First Things First."

"Salvation is not a Merit, but of Grace."

"What the heart says, God always hears."

"Christ shares His Grace and Love with some very imperfect followers."

"Long service is good, but it is weakness to boast of it."

SERVICE CLUBS OF CITY UNITE IN BIG MEETING

Letting director of the post and that the post planned to foster an athletic program among the boys of the community. He also said that the Legion was considering a plan to sponsor a Fall festival in Decatur next fall, similar to the Old Home Week celebration held last fall. A committee has investigated the feasibility of staging such an affair next fall and reported that a strong sentiment in favor of it prevails among the business men and merchants.

Mr. Conter then introduced Mr. Faulkner, who held his audience spellbound for more than half an hour. Mr. Faulkner is widely noted as a forceful speaker and he presented the cause of the American Legion here last night in a highly convincing manner. After telling how the Legion was born on the battlefield of France and how the members were inspired with a sense of comradeship and patriotism that is invaluable to a community, he urged the people of the community to lend their moral support to the American Legion.

Following Mr. Faulkner's address, short talks were made by C. E. Peterson, president of the Industrial Association; Martin Mylott, president of the Rotary Club, and Roy Mumma, president of the Lions Club. Each pledged his organization to cooperate with the Legion and each of the other organizations in all movements and projects for the advancement and betterment of the community.

Robert Bushee, of Ossian, state athletic officer of the American Legion, and Earl Merry, of Dunkirk, state finance officer of the Legion, were guests at the banquet and were introduced by Mr. Conter.

Avon Burk made a short talk, in which he stated that each of the service clubs represented at the banquet had an immediate opportunity to aid the community. He referred to the financial campaign of the local organization of Boy Scouts, which will be made next week. After discussing the great work being done among the boys of the city through the medium of Boy Scouts, Mr. Burk introduced his son, James, who is a Life Scout with nearly enough merit badges to become an Eagle Scout. James exhibited his merit badge belt and explained how he earned each of the 18 badges on the belt.

The banquet and meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," led by Dr. Fred Patterson.
