COURT HOUSE

Damage Suit Venued Here

A suit for $5,000 damages, filed in the Allen superior court by P. F. Lee against Troy V. Rudy, has been venued to the Adams circuit court for trial. The plaintiff demands judgment for personal injuries and damage to his automobile resulting from an automobile accident on the Lincoln highway, four miles west of Van Wert, Ohio, January 9, 1928. Attorney C. R. McNabb, of Fort Wayne, is counsel for the plaintiff.

Files Suit On Note

The Farmers Deposit bank has filed a suit on a note in the Adams circuit court against Albert F. Moser and Clara Moser. Judgment for $500 is demanded. Attorney Dore B. Erwin of Decatur, is counsel for the plaintiff.

Jury Returns Verdict

In the case of Charlotte Sommer vs. J. J. Berling et al, which was tried in the circuit court here Wednesday and Thursday, the jury returned a verdict about 10 o'clock last night awarding judgment for $300 in favor of the plaintiff. The jury deliberated about 6 hours. The plaintiff demanded judgment for $2,000 for personal injuries sustained in a collision between the automobile in which she was riding and a truck belonging to the defendants.

Judgment Awarded

In the case of Gedge Brothers Iron Roofing company vs. William Witt-wer, the court awarded judgment on an account for $300 and costs in favor of the plaintiff.

Orders Complaint Amended

In the case of the Old Adams County Bank vs. the Ezra Reber estate, the court ordered the claimant to amend the complaint and make Earl Reber a party defendant.

Judgment On Note

In the case of Paul H. Graham vs.
Leon Hamilton Jones, the court awarded judgment on a note for $137.72 and costs in favor of the plaintiff.

STEWART GETS MANY OFFERS

broad smile for everyone.

Even the little lawyer from Manhattan, Winthrop W. Aldrich, who is a bout half as large as the 240-pound Stewart, drew a friendly nod and courteous treatment from the former Roosevelt Rough rider who elevated himself by hard work to one of the biggest jobs in his industry had to offer.
Stewart knew that Aldrich, as Rockefeller proxy committee head had been the man who had done more than any other toward the colonel's downfall.
Yet when the meeting was over Aldrich himself made a public recognition of the fair treatment he had received in the camp of the enemy.

Standard Oil of Indiana resumed business today with Stewart the only Major casualty in its executive personnel as a result of the Rockefeller campaign. L. L. Stephens, who aided Stewart in the fight as did the board members, was defeated for re-election to the board along with his chief, but was retained as the company's general counsel.
E. G. Seubert was re-elected president but no one was elected chairman of the board. For the present that post will remain vacant with Seubert serv-

Arms Embargo Extended

Washington, Mar. 8.—(U.P.)—The arms embargo against exportations into Mexico was extended today to include commercial airplanes, Secretary of State Kellogg announced.

Commercial planes were put on the embargo list when the document originally was drafted but were removed about a year ago. The embargo against exportation of planes in Mexico was restored to prevent rebels from obtaining planes in the United States.

Mexico City, Mar. 8.—(U.P.)—The Mexican federal government launched the renewed strength of its army against widely separated rebel centers on the northern front today.

Available federal troops were hurried from the conquered Vera Cruz area to the north. Military operations centered at Juarez, state of Chihuahua; Torreon, state of Coahuila; and in Sonora.
