issue. There were shouts of "No, No" from the Republican side, but when all the Democrats arose, the Republicans knew it would be useless to protest and at the wave of Wilson's hand they arose in a body and agreed to take the record vote.

Never did the famous big steam roller of the house work more effectively. Republican leaders were determined only to follow the instructions of President Hoover and give the senate what it had been demanding, a record vote from the house on the debenture.

The bill will be sent to conference later in the day and the debenture plan will be speedily eliminated, because senate leaders already have promised they will not fight further if the house voted on it.

From Bill to Act

Before a "bill" becomes an "act" in Great Britain, it must be "read" three times in the house of commons and then sent to the house of lords for approval. When through both houses the bill is taken to the throne for the royal assent; that attained, it is no longer a "bill," but an "act of parliament."

Roundabout Legislation

There is no provision in the Constitution for the repeal of an amendment, and no amendment has ever been repealed. Most authorities agree that the only way to accomplish such an object would be to pass another amendment to annul the previous amendment.

Law Enforcement

Wants Probe Of Killings By Prohibition Agents

Washington, June 13.—(U.P.)—Rep. Schafer, Republican, of Wisconsin, introduced a resolution today, calling for a congressional investigation of recent fatal shootings by federal prohibition officers.

Schafer's resolution would appropriate $25,000 for the investigation which he said he hoped would result in new legislation to prevent unnecessary use of firearms by dry agents.
