Has Riches But Patrols His Beat

Rockland, Me., June 20—(UP)—Habit—formed during 20 years of "pounding the pavement"—keeps Patrolman John T. Beery on his beat, despite the fact that he is reputedly worth about $750,000.

The money came to him through his mother's will. Although it was a fortune it was not sufficient to cause him to retire.

"It's my hobby," the officer explains when people ask him why he stays on the job when he could be living a life of luxury with no work to do.

Sheriff's Mistake Costs Him And Deputies $4,000

Noblesville, Ind., June 20.—(UP)—A mistake made by Charles Gooding, former sheriff of Hamilton county, has cost him and his deputies $4,000.

three men wounded by the officers, who fired after mistaking them for furn runners. Harry Butterworth received $2,000 and Herbert Newlin and Dendell Hessons, $1,000 each. Hesson is now serving a prison term for

How Stowaway Told His Parents

Lafayette Hotel and Cottages
1111 Broadway, New York
615 North Dearb. Motor

June 18, 1929

Dear Parents,
I am attempting to go across on the airship "Green Flash." If I succeed on getting on do not worry for me.
I am doing this thing of my own accord and was not influenced by anyone and wish, no one to be held responsible for the consequences.
I am doing it because I know that if I succeed I can do much for your happiness.
Please do not think bad of me. I will cable you if I arrive in Rome.
I am constantly thinking of you.
Love, Arthur.

This letter would have given any mother and father a shock. The call of adventure seized Arthur Schreiber and this note is the way he took of telling his parents of Portland, Me., he was soaring over the ocean in the "Yellow Bird," the first aerial stowaway. The note reveals that the youth intended to stow himself on the "Green Flash" on its flight to Rome.

Dreams Disaster Is Near; Meets Death Same Day

Buffalo, June 20.—(UP)—Mrs. Estelle Schoover, 50, told her husband at the breakfast table that a dream she had during the night was a premonition that disaster would overtake one of them before 24 hours had passed.

Arriving home after work, Schoo-ver failed to find his wife. Deciding to go to a corner store he walked past a group of persons standing over a prostrate body lying on the trolley tracks.

It proved to be that of his wife. She had been killed by a traction car.
