Chicago Tribune Plane,
Crushed By Ice, Sinks

Port Burwell, Ungava, Labrador, July 15.—(U.P.)—The crew of the "Unin" Bowler, Chicago to Berlin plane planned to begin the long trek back to the windy city today, its machine crushed and sunk by the pack ice of Ungava Bay.

A five day flight to save the "Unin" Bowler from destruction failed yesterday when the ice to which it had been moored broke loose under the constant hammering of a northwest gale and drifted out to sea. The crew was ashore at the time and escaped the fate of their craft.

Every inhabitant of this little settlement had done his best to fend off the pack ice from the frail ship and an hour before the final catastrophe it appeared that the Bowler had been saved. Then a 50 mile gale set in, the Bowler was torn from its moorings, drifted out to sea and sank.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENTS

In the Adams Circuit Court September Term 1929 No. 13354
The State of Indiana, Adams County, SS Sylvia Lehman et al vs. Chester L. Hendricks, Mae Hendricks.

It appearing from affidavit, filed in the above entitled cause, that Chester L. Hendricks and Mae Hendricks of the above named defendants are non-residents of the State of Indiana.

Notice is therefore hereby given that said Chester L. Hendricks and Mae Hendricks that they be and appear before the Hon. Judge of the Adams Circuit Court on the second day of September, 1929, the same being the first Juridical Day of the next regular term thereof, to be held at the Court House in the City of Decatur, commencing on Monday, the 1st day of September A. D. 1929, and to answer or demur to said complaint, or the same will be heard and determined in their absence.

Witness, my name, and the Seal of said Court hereto affixed, this 1st day of July 1929. James T. Merryman, atty.

July 1st 1929. James T. Merryman, atty. July 1-8-1929.

LUTHERAN MEET

arrived over the Pennsylvania lines carried 700 Walther leaguers and their families. The passengers from the Chicago special seemed to pour through the station in an endless parade.

The visitors were greeted at the railroad station by local reception committees in automobiles with golden windshield stickers bearing the words "Walther League service." The delegations living up to the convention motto, "Serve the Lord with Gladness," were in high spirits and were enjoying their greeting to the fullest.

Sounds Keynote of Meeting
Rev. Paul Lindemann of St. Paul, Minn., chosen because of his popular hold upon the younger members of the Lutheran church, delivered the keynote address of the convention, as the principal speaker at the opening session.

Rev. Paul F. Miller, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, presided at the rally and introduced the speaker. Rev. Miller also gave the scripture reading and offered prayer.

Eggers Voices Welcome
The address of welcome was delivered by T. G. Eggers, chairman of the convention committee.

The Concordia college band under the direction of Luther Miller gave the prelude and postlude.

The peak of attendance at the convention was reached yesterday. The special trains and many of the visitors returned home last night. The business session which lasts for three

SHOWING—"A ROSE BETWEEN TWO THORNS"

Monroe Young Man Is Honor Student At Purdue

Lafayette, Ind., July 15.—(Special)—Harley A. Ehrsam, of Monroe, a junior in the school of civil engineering, has been named on the Distinguished Student roll at Purdue University for the excellence of work done during the second semester of the 1928-29 school year. It was announced today by President Edward C. Elliott. The Distinguished Student rating was won by only 273 students out of an undergraduate student body of approximately 3,900. In order to receive the coveted scholastic distinction, it was necessary for seventy-five per cent of a student's grades to be H or A, which means 90 or above, and for none of the 1928-29 grades to be below 70.
