MOTOR TROUBLE
THREATENED IN
ST. LOUIS PLANE
Capt. P. L. Crichton and critically injured Owen Haugland.
The crews of the two planes had exhibited keen interest in each other's efforts, had dropped encouraging messages to be sent to each other. The Minnesota had been up 155 hours.
Another serious contender of the St. Louis fliers, the Billion Dollar City, was forced down by motor trouble at Houston last week after over 200 hours in the air.
Reports from O'Brien and Jackson today declared everything was going well.

Annual Open Season On Sighting Reptile Is On
Sauers, Ind., July 29.—(UP)—The annual open season on sighting the huge reptile supposed to lurk in this vicinity is on. Two women berry-pickers made the first report this season, saying the glimpse they had of the supposed snake showed it to be as large as a stove pipe with a mouth as wide as a shovel.

HEAT WAVE TO CONTINUE

Indiana Will Not Get Any Relief Before At Least Another 24 Hours

Indianapolis, July 29.—(UP)—Relief from the current heat wave in Indiana probably will not be forthcoming for at least another 24 hours, according to J. H. Armstrong, U. S. meteorologist.
Armington said that although showers were unexpected, temperatures probably would descend slightly within the 24 hours.
The mercury over the state today was slightly lower than yesterday.
Vincennes with an official reading of 100 was the hottest place in the state Sunday. Madison and Columbus were next with 99.
Terre Haute, Farmland and Cambridge City sweltered under 96 degrees.
Wheatfield was the coolest with 55. Hundreds of persons sought relief at various bathing beaches and state parks.

Work On New Addition Is Progressing Rapidly

The Melbers-Niblick subdivision is coming right along, a big force of men grading while another is putting in the macadam streets. Tenth and Eleventh streets are now finished, except the grading, and the work will be well along in another week or ten days. Dennis Striker has the contract for plowing up and making the street grades, while Tonneller and Boch are putting in the pavements. It will be a splendid subdivision, many of the lots having beautiful trees and will be sold on easy payments, with no taxes for two years, giving everyone an opportunity to purchase. Mr. Bruce will arrive this evening to plan the sale.

NOTED AVIATOR KILLED
St. Louis, July 29.—(UP)—Colonel George Lea Lambert, noted St. Louis aviator and son of Major Albert Bond Lambert, donor of Lambert St. Louis airport, was killed in an airplane crash at Black Jack, Missouri, several miles west of here today, according to reports.

Wanted Love Gifts Back
Happiness felt by a septuagenarian when he remarried led to an amusing court case at Armaugh, Ireland. The old man wanted the return of two goats which he said had been stolen from him, but which he later admitted he had given away in his wedded bliss. The case was dismissed.

Don't Worry
Fear and worry are as unnecessary as they are debilitating. They are our race's heritage from the dim dawn of time, and only clear-thinking, audacious souls have risen above them, says American Magazine.

The Thing Needed
The world will never grow better until we can get rid of some of our prejudices without acquiring new ones.—Atlanta Constitution.

BROMLEY PLANS TO TRY AGAIN

Proposed Tacoma-to-Toyko Flight Ends In Crash At Take-Off

Tacoma, Wash., July 29.—(UP)—Thousands of Tacoma citizens who spent Saturday night at Pierce county airport to see Harold Bromley take off for Tokyo at dawn, only to be disappointed when his plane nosed over and was wrecked, today welcomed with enthusiasm the news that the flight would be made this summer.
The committee backing the venture, headed by John Bafelen, prominent Tacoma lumberman, met last night and went into every detail of the end of the first attempt.
"The finances are guaranteed for a second attempt of 'The City of Tacoma' to take off for Tokyo," said Dufflen. "The backers of the flight have absolute faith in our pilot, Harold Bromley and his plane. We feel he did everything in his power to make the flight a success and we stand firmly back of him."
The committee gave unanimous approval to the statement made by Bafelen and at once opened negotiations by wire to have the plane rebuilt or to have a new machine built for the 4,700-mile flight and rushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

OFFICERS FROM SEVERAL CITIES TO MEET TUESDAY

equipment has been disposed of in Decatur by the Smiths.
Sheriff Hollingsworth and Chief Metcalf will return to Paulding again tomorrow to continue the investigation there. Federal authorities also are making a thorough investigation of the entire case, and it is probable that the men will be taken to South Bend later this week, if sufficient evidence can be obtained to charge the men in federal court.
All three of the men are now being held on technical charges pending further investigation.

Story of Arrests Told
A spectacular story of how Roy and Ora Smith were arrested at Homewood, Illinois, by police officials of that city was told today in a communication from Homewood officials to Sheriff Earl Hollingsworth, of this city. The two Smith boys and William Bland, 16, of Paulding, Ohio, were driving through Homewood Friday. A motorcycle policeman became suspicious of them and followed them, according to the story told Sheriff Hollingsworth.
The trio, driving a Chevrolet automobile, later identified as the one stolen last week from Paulding, stopped at a street intersection and the policeman asked them where they got the car. One of the three answered that they had purchased it. The policeman ordered them to get out of the car, which they all three did.

Roy Tries To Escape

As the three men stepped out of the machine, the policeman noticed that a black-jack was protruding from the pocket of Roy Smith. The policeman said he would take them to the police station to investigate their case further and Roy started to run away.
The policeman fired a shot at him, which barely missed his head, and he stopped. The three were then loaded into the stolen car and taken to police headquarters where several officers began questioning them. Roy Smith at first refused to talk and demanded that they be released.
A policeman struck at him, knocking him down according to the story, and then turned to his brother, Ora Smith and said, "Now what have you got to say?"

Begin Telling Story

Ora immediately admitted that the car was a stolen one, and the three began telling parts of a story that involves auto thefts at Paulding, Jackson, Michigan; Cement City, Michigan; Columbia City and Decatur. The men admitted stealing several cars and parking them for a few days on some lonely road. They would then return and get the cars and sell them or else strip them of their valuable accessories; sell the accessories and let the chassis remain to be found by police.
While the confessions have not yet been completed, it is understood that the trio told enough to cause the arrest of Ernest Smith, of Paulding, allegedly the "brains" of the gang. Ernest Smith still denies any knowledge of the thefts, but is being held pending further investigation.

Several of the stolen cars, which the men have admitted stealing and selling are being traced and it is understood that several of them have been sold to automobile junk yards.

Childish Writing
When children begin to write they often do so from right to left. It is called mirror writing. When held up to a mirror it looks correct. Mirror writing has no special significance and it passes as the child grows older.
