Bandits Obtain $2,000 From Hammond Theatre

REPUBLICANS ELECT HOUSTON

Republican party in the south on a more dignified basis as recently urged by Mr. Hoover.

Exercising the prerogative of her sex, Mrs. Alvin T. Hert, vice-chairman of the national committee, changed her mind and several days ago withdrew her resignation recently offered.

A scramble of women for the place sent Mr. Hoover running for cover. He persuaded Mrs. Hert to stay on rather than face a choice among half a dozen aggressive women who had hoped to be elected to second place in the national committee hierarchy at today's meeting.

STRESEMANN IS FAVORABLE TO BRIAND'S PLAN

In his speech, Stresemann also expressed the hope that the Anglo-American naval negotiations would lead to an agreement and make land disarmament also possible in the near future.

He said the cardinal achievement of the Hague reparations conference was the emancipation of German territory from foreign military occupation.

Stresemann recalled that before Germany entered the league, many Germans demanded a sweeping settlement of the problems left by the war as a condition of Germany's adherence.

"But Germany," he said, "opposed this demand and has never regretted its participation in the league's activities although it has painfully felt the occupation of German soil."

Stresemann's collaboration with Briand in the "United States of Europe" project was today's feature of the League of Nations tenth assembly, now entering on its second week.
